"I asked her to put her father's white shirts in the washer.

"'Olivia,' I said,
'put them in
one at a time
or else
they'll tangle . . .

"'. . . and only one capful of soap.'"

"Mother, I KNOW
how to work
the washing machine!"

Which she did.

"Oh, I wish there
was somewhere
I could send her
until she develops
some SENSE!"

Some SENSE?! thought Olivia. I'M the only one in this house with any sense!
What ELSE is she saying about me? Maybe I should investigate.
