

Bunny hops

and nibbles
all through the day.

She plants a carrot seed
here and there

and peeks at Dog.

When night comes, she sips cocoa in bed and reads. Now and then she checks on the light in the window of the little red house.

Dog skips and sniffs
all through the day.

He hides his ball

and digs it up and peeks at Bunny.

When night comes, he munches biscuits in bed and reads. He checks on the light in the window of the little blue house.
