The little rainbow
bounced towards him.

“Wrap yourself
around my tail,”
Monkey said.

Then Monkey climbed
down through the forest.

The rainbow sighed and sniffed,
then burst into tears!

Big wet splodges of red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet splashed onto the forest soaking everything.

The rainbow shrank and drifted high into the forest canopy. As it floated up, it felt glad that it had shared the colours with the rainforest.

And of course, everything and everyone got their colours back.

Well, perhaps not their original colours...
