

Helping your children choose books they will love

Lovereading4kids.co.uk is a book website created for parents and children to make choosing books easy and fun

extracts from Pirate Stories for Little Children

Published by Usborne Publishing Ltd

All Text is Copyright © of the Author and/or Illustrator

Please print off and read at your leisure.

After dropping off the sailors, the pirates had a party.
The ship shook with sea shanties and jolly jigs, until...

Oh no!
Pirate
hunters.

Let's get out of here!

Today was the final of the Pirate of the Year contest.

The lucky winner would receive a chest full of treasure.

There were only two contestants left – Captain Blackheart and Billy Booty.

Task one was a flat-out galleon race
to Skull Island and back.

Ye scoreboard

Blackheart Billy

Rules

1. Cheating is expected.
(Just don't get caught.)
2. Pirates must protect each other against danger.

Spike took a shovel from his bag and began digging.

"Bobby Bones was a fool to tell me about his map!" laughed the treacherous pirate.

He shook with excitement as the ground moved beneath him. "This is it!" he cried.