And the final lesson was How to Fight a Knight.

Every evening, George read the dragon a bedtime story, as good mothers do.
When he read from a book of dragon tales, the dragon looked sadly at the pictures.

A hot tear rolled down his scaly cheek.
The dragon was lonely. He was missing other dragons.

They swooped down through the clouds, into a cave like a dragon's jaws. This was the place where dragons lived.

The dragon gave a roar of delight. He was home at last.
