Hamster! Hamster!

We've got a hamster in our class,
as brown as toffee.
He's so sweet, so cute,
with chubby cheeks
for storing nuts and fruit.
He sips from a water bottle
strapped to his cage,
like a little baby!
Awww, he's soooooo cute.
He's got these darling little paws
like a doll's hands,
and a sweet, cute, tiny little tail
like a little piece of spaghetti!
Awwwww, he is soooooo deliciously cute.

One day I put my finger up to his cage,
and he sniffed it with a nose
like a chocolate-chip button
and he... BIT ME!

We've got a hamster in our class,
as brown as a bog.
He is so mean, so horrible,
with fat cheeks
for storing pupils' fingers.
He sucks at a water bottle
strapped to his cage,
like a greedy rat!
Errr, he's soooooo disgusting.
He's got these vicious claws
as terrible as a tiger's,
and a long, wiggerly, squiggerly tail
as scaly as a snake!
ARRRRR
he is soooooo perfectly horrid.

Bug poem

Hanging from a silken web,
landing on my sister's head!
A hairy bug.

Living under the toilet seat,
smelling like my brother's feet!
A stinky bug.

Wearing lipstick and make-up,
landing on my mum's teacup.
A lady bug.

Drawing pictures without a care,
sitting in my grandad's chair.
A doodle bug.

Always asleep and in a doze,
curled up in my grandma's clothes.
A snug bug.

On my head and under my hat
I pulled on too hard and it went splat!
A dead bug.
