

Helping your children choose books they will love

Lovereading4kids.co.uk is a book website created for parents and children to make choosing books easy and fun

Pages from
Clara Button and The Wedding Day Surprise

Written by
Amy de la Haye

Illustrated by Emily Sutton

Published by
V&A Publishing

All Text is Copyright © of the Author and/or Illustrator

Please print off and read at your leisure.

Clara went upstairs to plan her outfit. She tried on the most unusual combinations, but nothing seemed quite right. Eventually, she chose a blue dress decorated with little purple flowers around the neck.

Clara was not sure she would ever get married, but it was fun to imagine all sorts of dreamy wedding gowns.

The wedding was very different from how Clara had imagined it. It was a Hindu wedding, and it was wonderfully colourful. Clara grinned – she looked just right at this wedding! Everyone loved Ollie's invention and he and Clara joined in the wedding procession.

