ANT and BEE Go Shopping
is a book I was asked to write
by children who love shopping!

All my ANT and BEE books are for shared reading. If a parent or older child reads the black words, then young children can help with the shopping by calling out the words printed in red. These red words describe the different shape and size of the objects Ant and Bee encounter in their shopping adventure!

EGMONT

One day Ant and Bee needed to make a shopping list because Kind Dog was coming to supper.

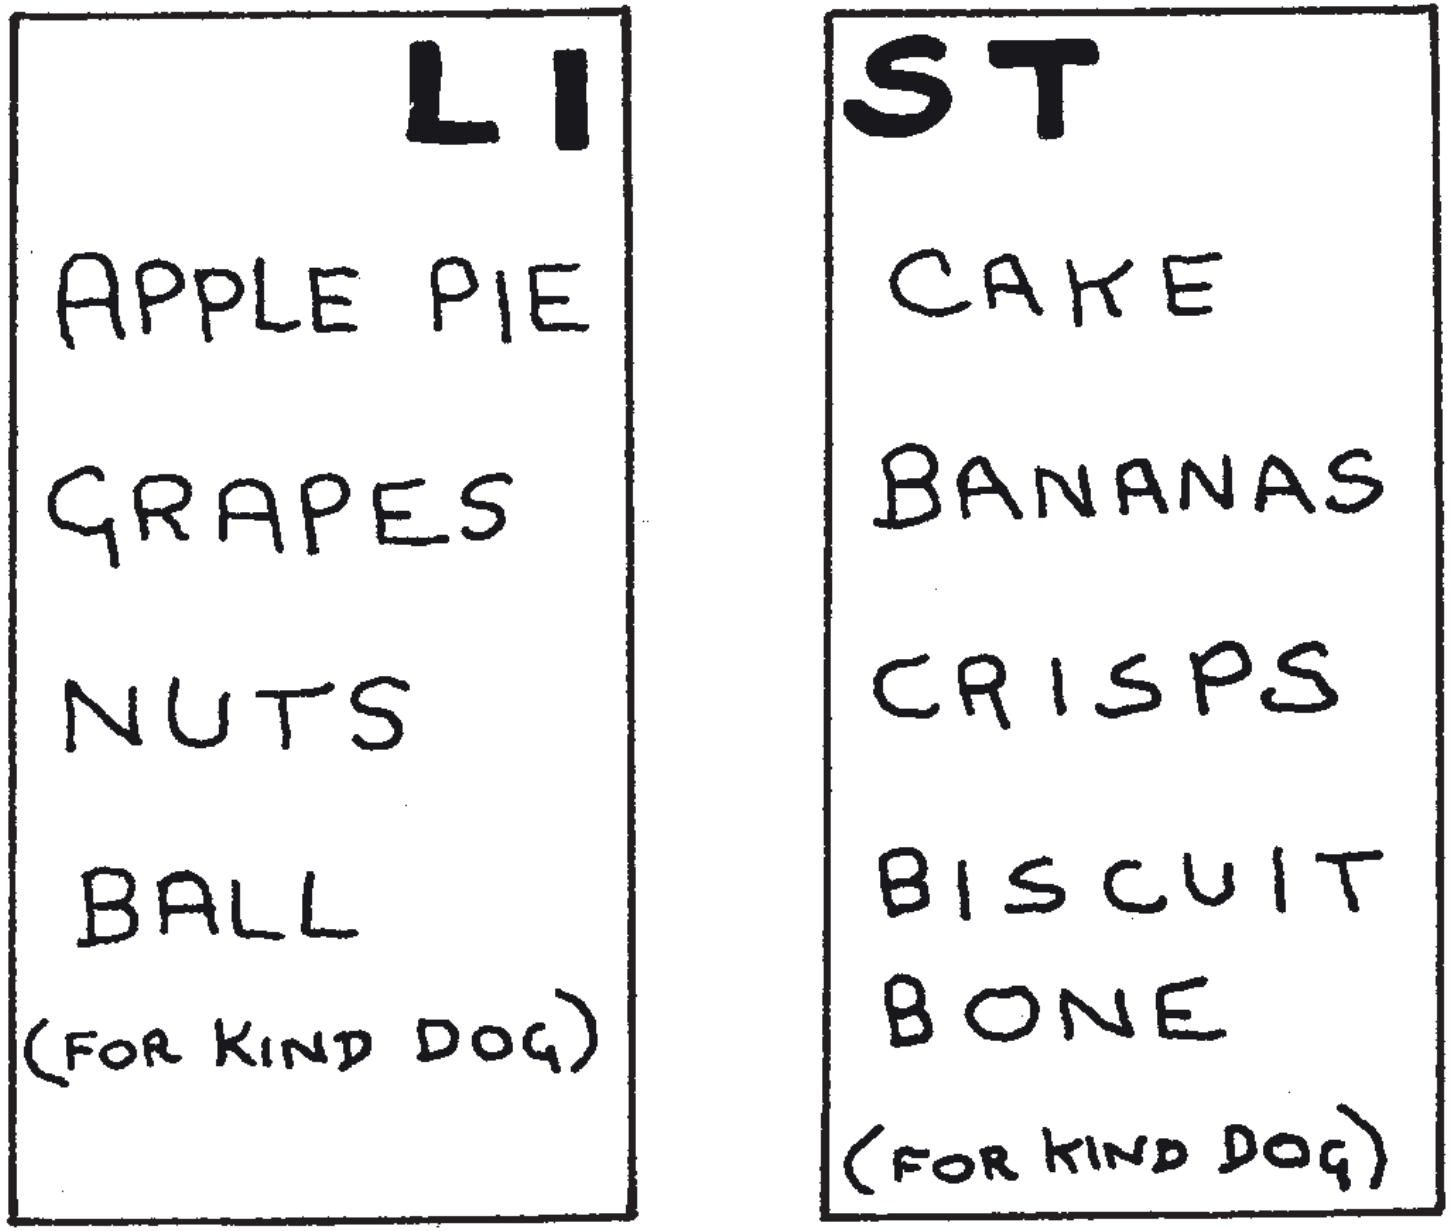

Ant and Bee wrote their shopping list on a piece of paper that was square and flat.

BEE

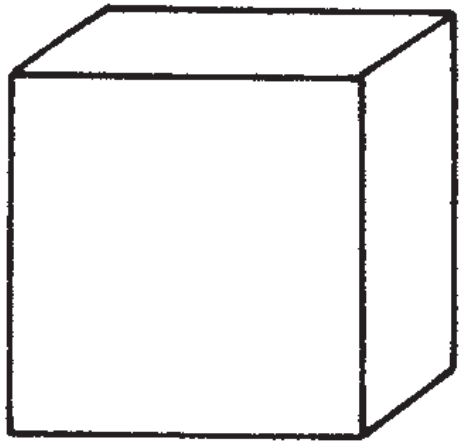

Ant and Bee cut the square and flat piece of paper in half, so they each had a half of the square and flat shopping list.
