OUR ROOM

Mother's Day

Mothering Sunday
should be a mothering fun day.

Yes, where children should smother their mother with thanks and cuddles for all those pranks and muddles
she's had to deal with throughout the year.

So let's hear it for all mums with one great big cheer!

Ian Souter

Spell to Make Mum Smile

Say, Good morning, Mum

You look particularly pretty. How about

A nice cup of tea?

Roger Stevens

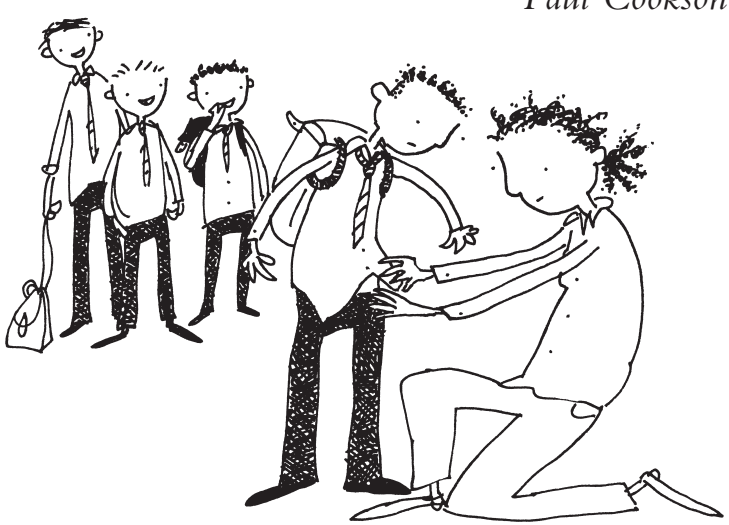

Things I Wish My Mother Would Not Do

Kiss me at the school gates – in front of all my friends Tuck my shirt right down my pants – in front of all my friends
Clean my face with lick and spit – in front of all my friends
Give my dad a great big snog – in front of all my friends

Do anything at all – in front of all my friends!

Paul Cookson

Story teller
Homework helper

Peace keeper
Light sleeper
Money lender

A Card for Mum on Mother's Day

I love your curries,
Your chilli con carne,

The way you make
A tuna sarnie,

Your roast potatoes,
Yorkshire pud,

And crispy chips
Are good, good, good.

And I love it when you bake
A Very Special Birthday Cake.

I love your puddings,
Especially rice

With grated nutmeg . . .
Very nice!

Your mushy peas I love,
Your Irish stew,

But most of all, Mum,
I love YOU!
