Chapter One

Mr and Mrs Hurry were in a hurry.

They were always in a hurry but this morning they were in even more of a hurry. It was the hurriest hurry there has ever been.

They were hurrying by the fridge.

They were hurrying by the bathroom.

They were hurrying everywhere.

Then, in the most hurriest hurry of all, first Mrs Hurry hurried out of the house and off to work . . .

And then, Mr Hurry. Off he hurried. Out of the house, down the road, off to work.

Well, at least they had got everything done, so off they hurried with smiles on their faces.

One problem.

Mr and Mrs Hurry had a son. His name was Harry. Or Hurry Harry as he was called at school.

And what had happened this morning is that Mr and Mrs Hurry were in such a hurry that they had hurried out of the house without Harry Hurry.
