What the Jackdaw Saw

MACMILLAN CHILDREN'S BOOKS

The jackdaw flew over the seaside
And this is what the jackdaw saw:

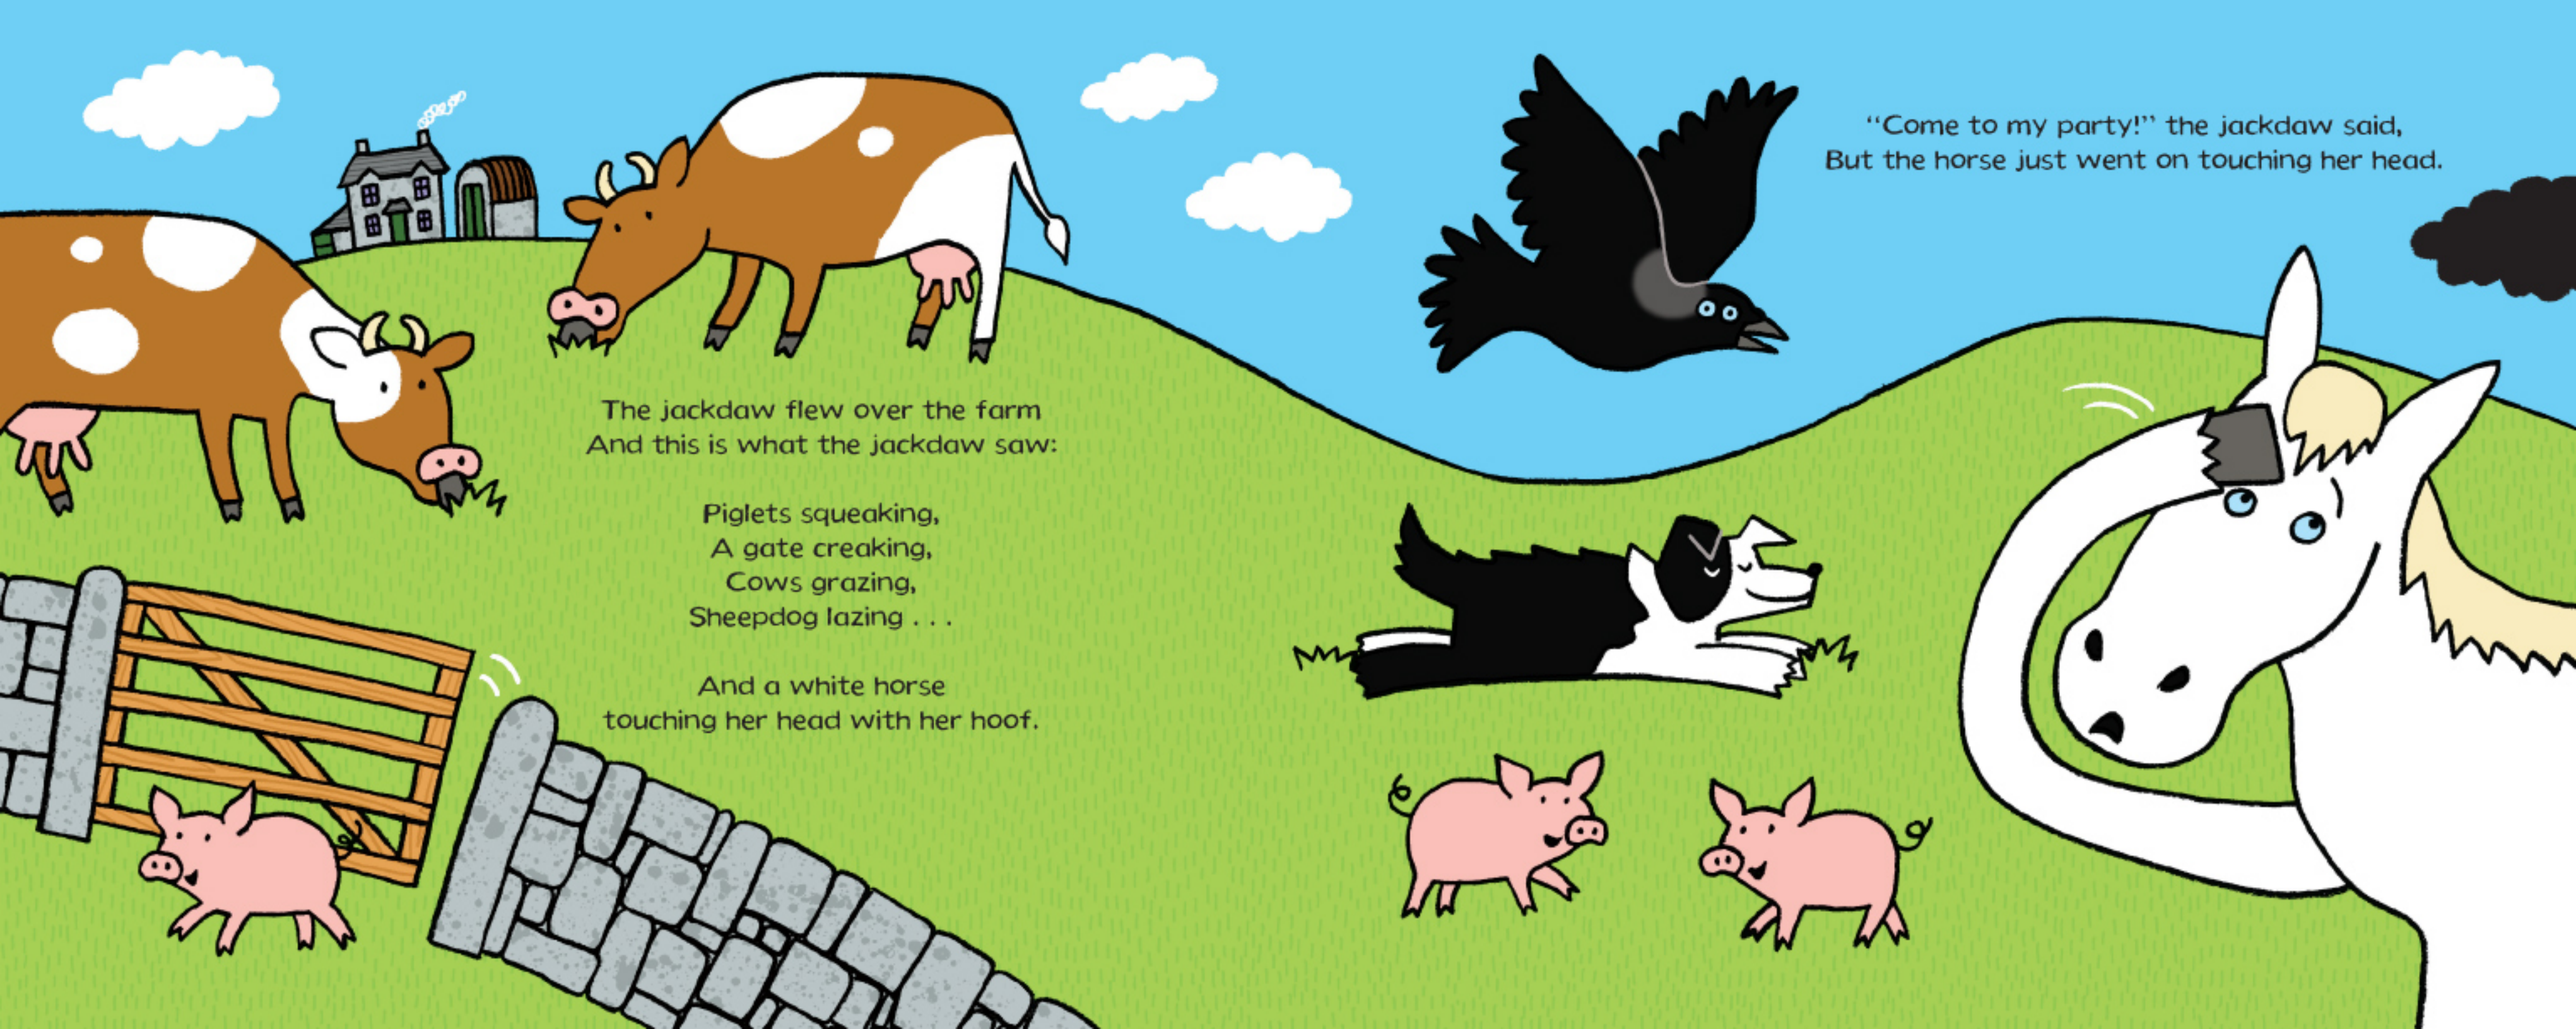

Waves crashing,
Children splashing,
Starfish sleeping,
Dolphins leaping . . .

And an octopus
touching his head with a tentacle.

"Come to my party!" the jackdaw said,
But the octopus went on touching his head.

The jackdaw flew over the farm
And this is what the jackdaw saw:

Piglets squeaking,
A gate creaking,
Cows grazing,
Sheepdog lazing . . .

And a white horse
touching her head with her hoof.

"Come to my party!" the jackdaw said,
But the horse just went on touching her head.
