Eddie, Tom and Mum were thinking about a holiday.

"This place looks nice," said Eddie.

"Mmmm," said Tom.

"We could go camping," said Mum.

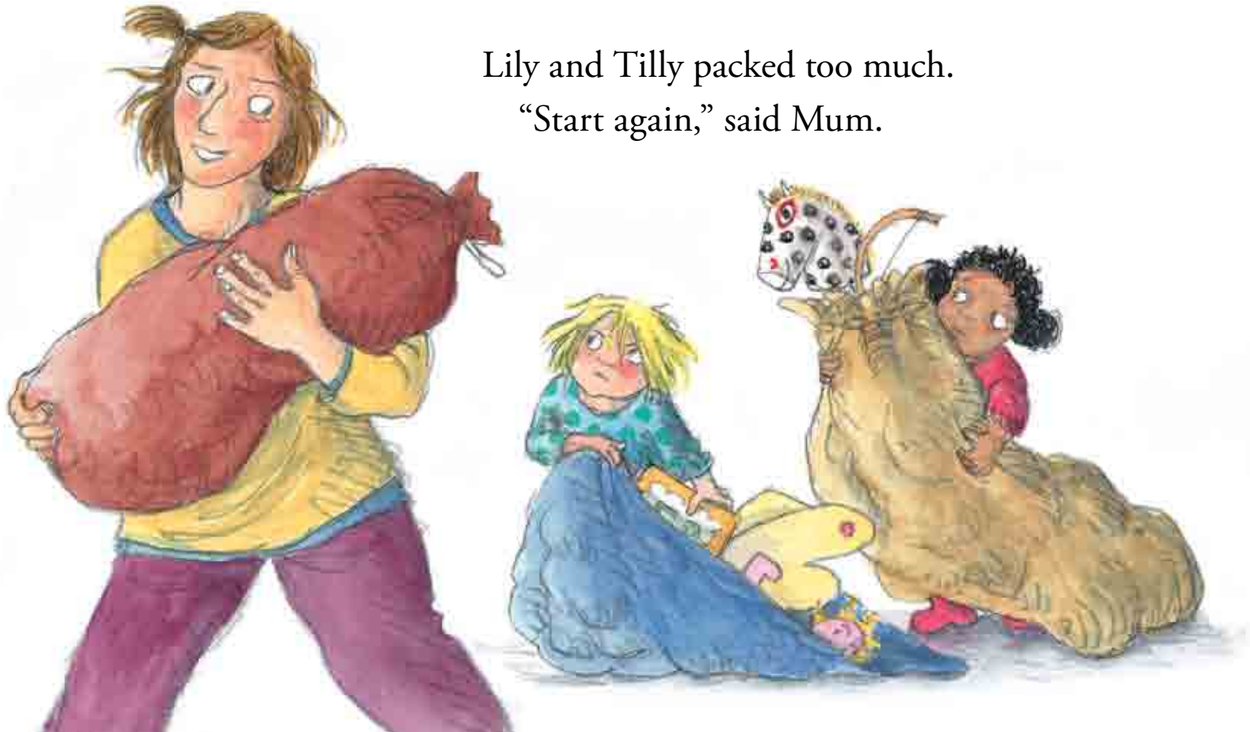

"Yes! Yes!" shouted Lily and Tilly,

from their secret den.

They began to pack for the camping holiday.
Eddie packed his torch and recorder and toothbrush and pyjamas in his rucksack. In his pockets he put a notebook and pens, a compass, a whistle, some pieces of string, and his Little Book of Knots.

Lily and Tilly packed too much.
"Start again," said Mum.

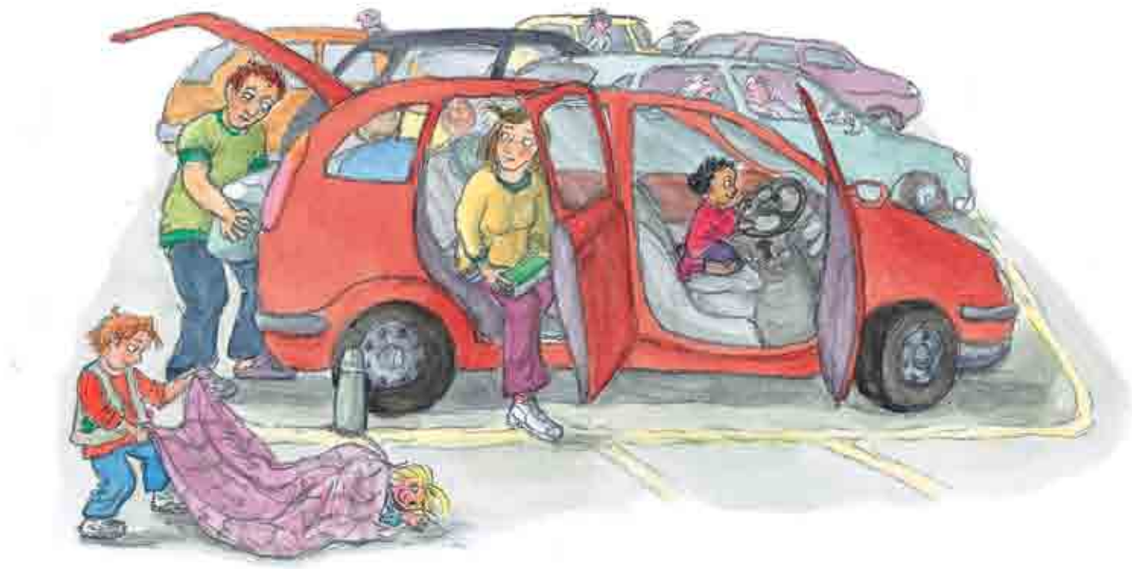

At last Tom began to load the car.
"What about Pusskin?"
asked Eddie.
"He can stay with Angie down
the road," said Tom. "Cats don't like camping."

It was a long way to the campsite.

"When are we there?" said Lily.
"Are we there yet?" said Tilly.
"I'm not sure," said Tom.

They stopped for a picnic supper.
"Not far now," said Mum. "I think."
