Day by day more and more suitors came to the palace.
Each had something more wonderful than the next.
There were acrobats and airships, pyramids and performing dogs, mysterious magical beasts, and a piece of frozen sky.

The king and the queen were too busy to notice their daughter was out all day, every day. When they saw her she looked happy, and that was enough. Suitors were arriving every hour,
and there was no time to worry about anything else.
