Fender saw the fishermen
fixing their boats.
He watched the swing shovel
lifting sand into the trucks.

Then some naughty teenagers came and climbed all over him.
Squawking seagulls landed on his roof.
They squabbled over a bag of stolen chips. "Kyowk-Kyowk!"

Dan started the engine.
"We'll go to my secret fishing spot," he said.

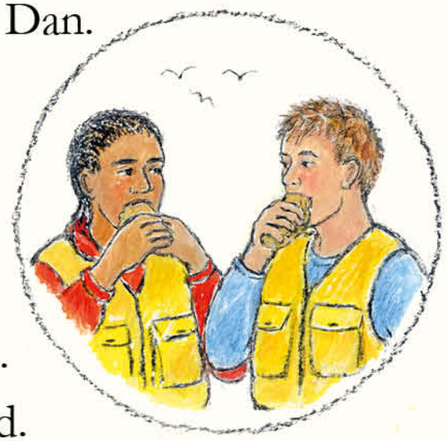

They dropped the anchor, baited their hooks and cast their rods.

Then they waited and waited…
"We should catch something soon," said Dan.

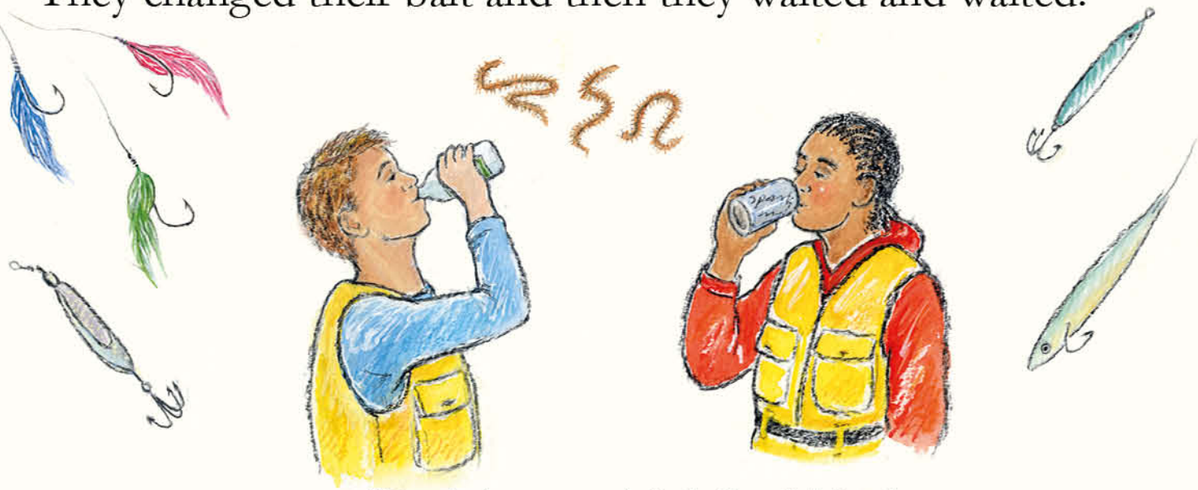

They waited and waited…
"Time for a pasty," he said.

"Let's try my favourite fishing spot around the island," said Jack.

They changed their bait and then they waited and waited.

"Let's have a drink," said Jack.
