When Albert was little, he loved having stories read to him.

When he grew bigger, he started making up stories of his own.

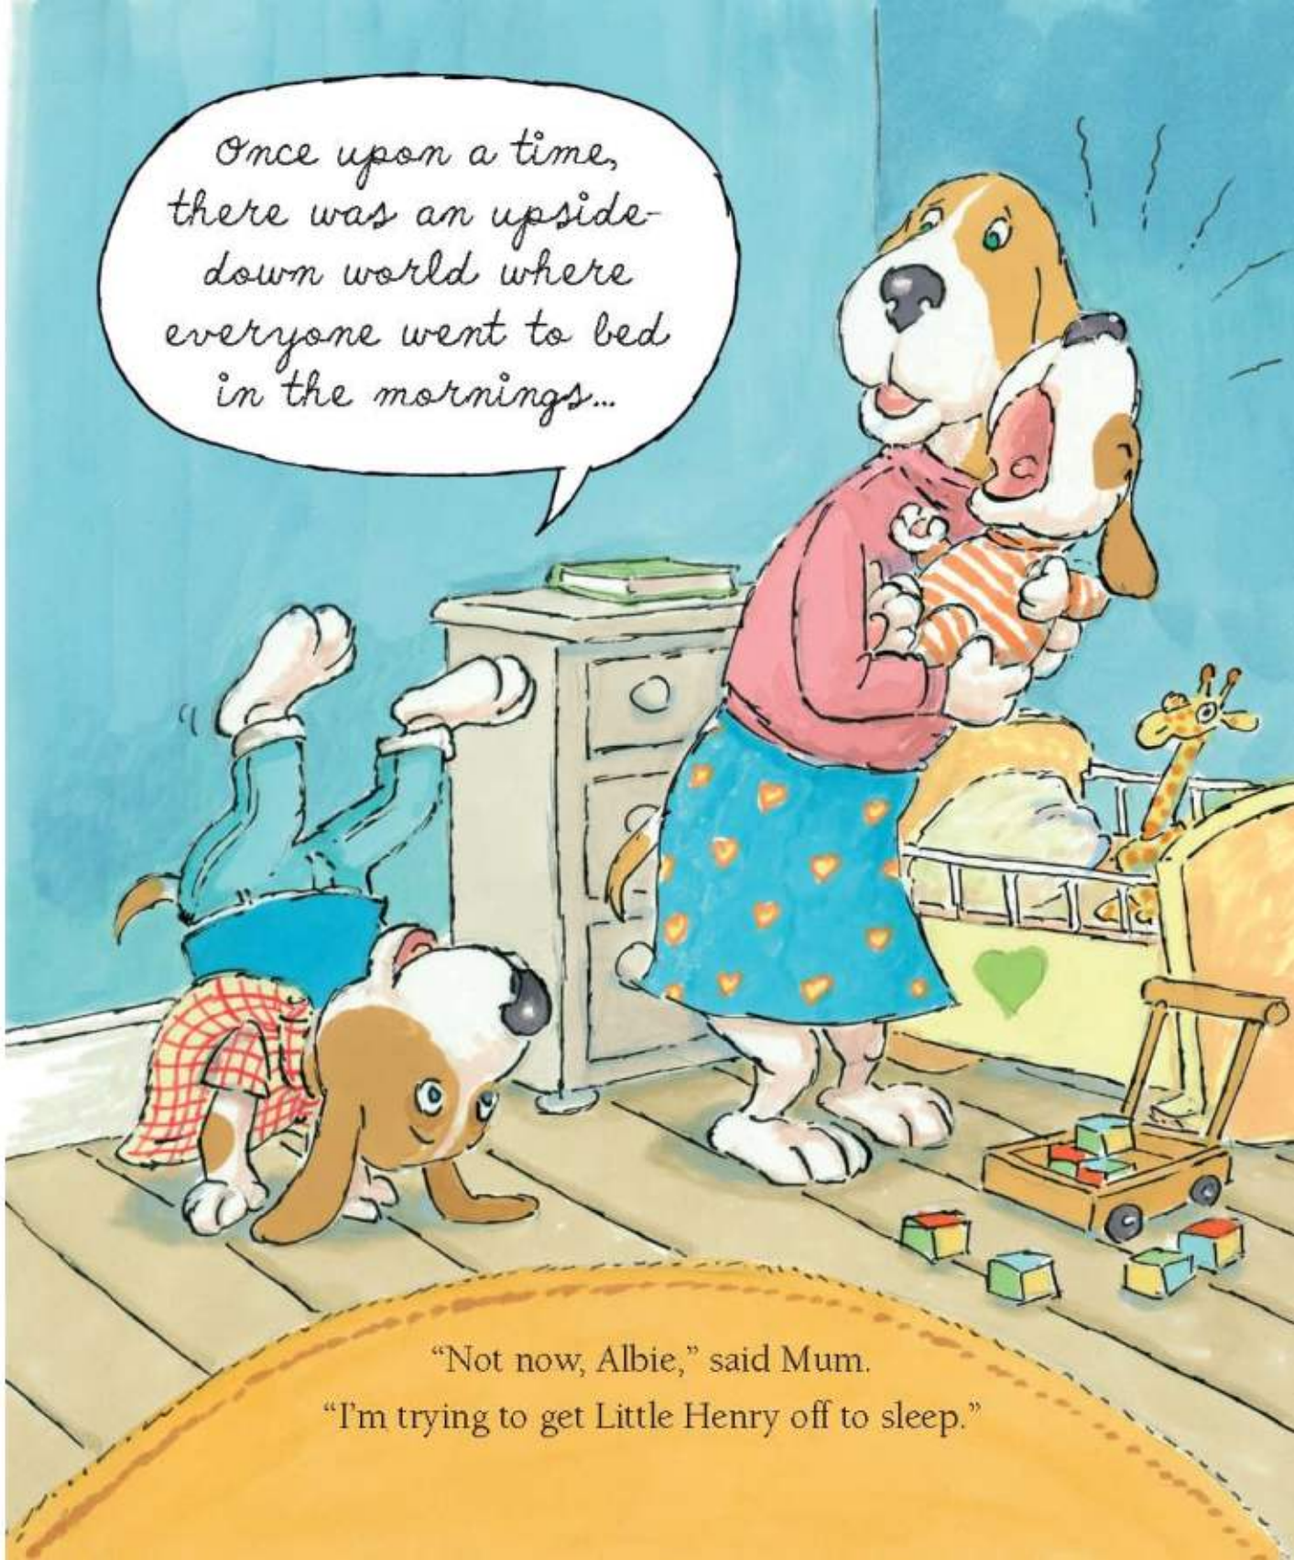

Albert's mum and dad loved to hear his stories,
but one day everything changed...

That was the day that Little Henry arrived.

Say hello to Little Henry, Albert.

"I can't listen to a story now," said Dad.
"Little Henry needs his bath."

"Not now, Albie," said Mum.
"I'm trying to get Little Henry off to sleep."

"We're a bit tired now, Albie," whispered Mum.
"Why don't you tell us a story later?"
