The PRINCE and the PORKER

PETER BENTLY DAVID ROBERTS

ANDERSEN PRESS

PIGNATIUS was passing the palace one day
when he saw ten fresh buns left to cool on a tray.
"Mmm," thought Pignatius. "I'm sure that it's fine if I just try one bun. That still leaves them nine."

"Delicious!" he said as he chomped on that bun.
And the next – and the next – until soon there were none.

"I wonder," he thought, "if they've made any more?"
