Walter wished he could spin
a perfect web, just like friends.

But Walter's webs weren't perfect.
They were wibbly-wobbly.

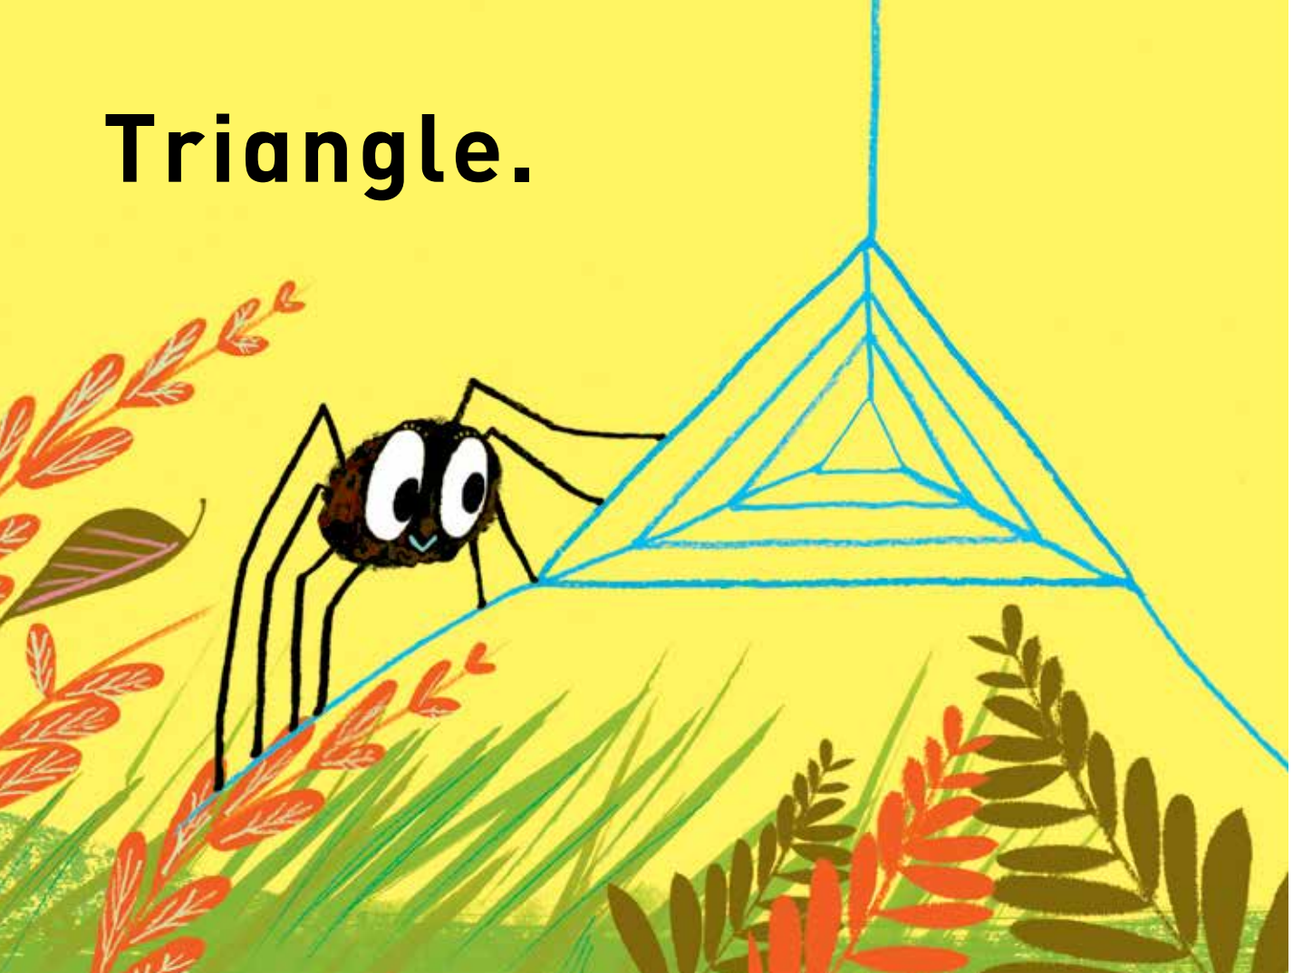

And when the wind blows,
wibbly wobbly webs always blow away!

But Walter was determined. So one morning he decided to start with something simple.

Very carefully he made a small web in the shape of a . . .

Triangle.

Whoosh! went the wind
and it blew the web away.

Walter started again. This time he made a bigger web in the shape of a . . .
