ODD SOCKS

Rebecca Ashdown

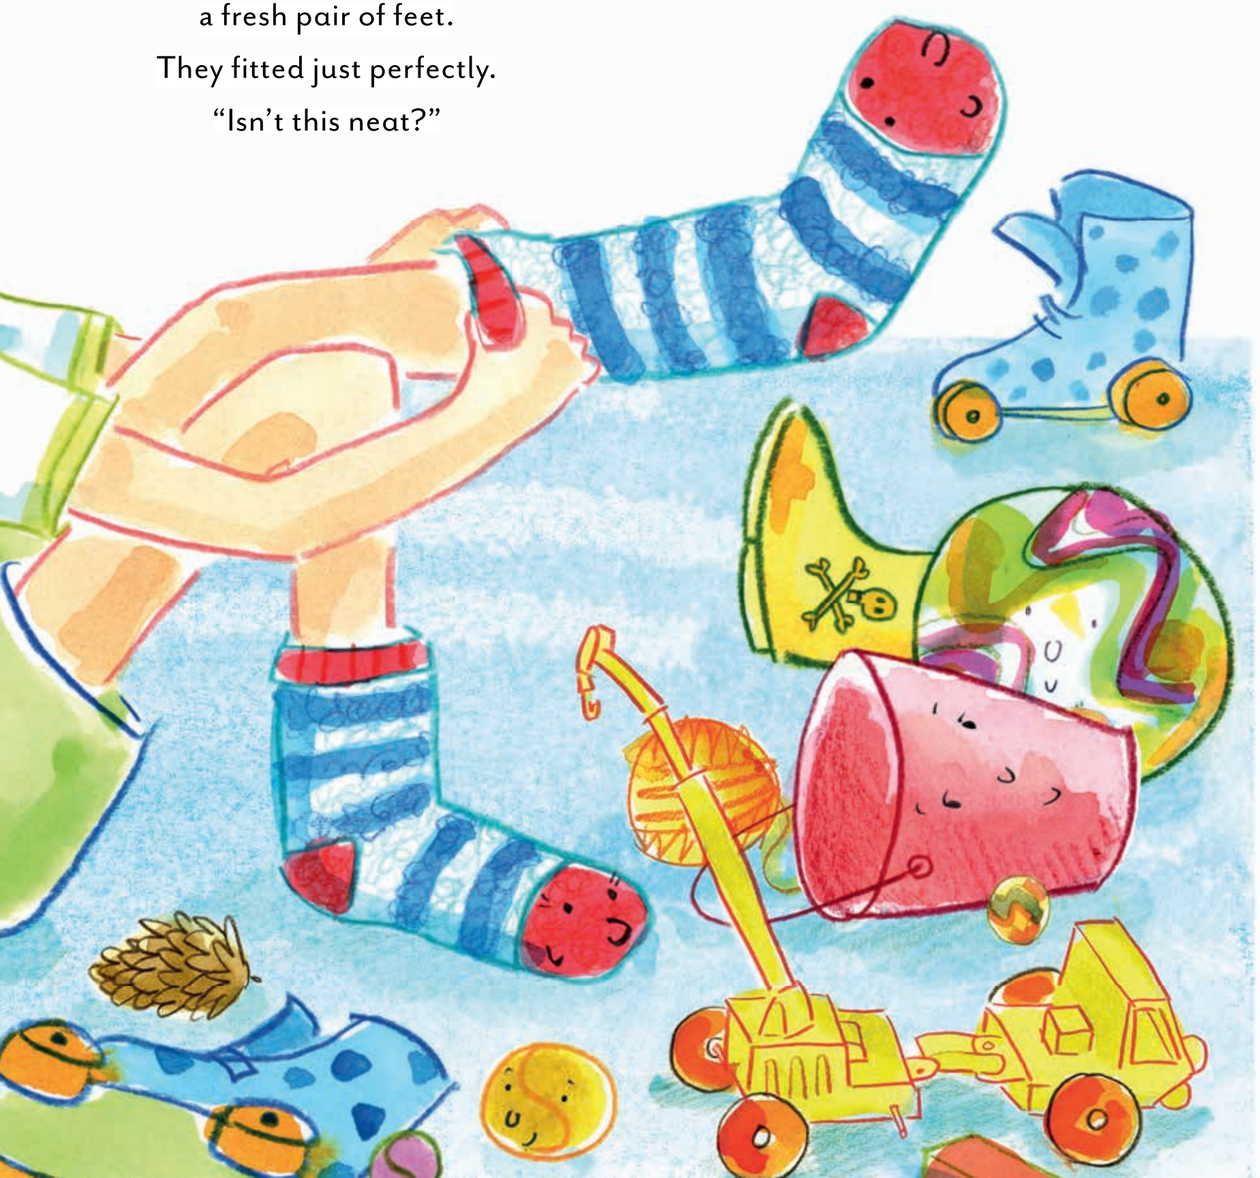

A pair of new socks came to live in a drawer.
"It's perfect," said Suki. "We couldn't want more."
"Exactly," said Sosh to his warm, woolly wife.
"A match made in heaven! Now, this is the life."

The two went to work on a fresh pair of feet.
They fitted just perfectly.
“Isn’t this neat?”

They ran to the roundabout,

whizzed down the slide.

They stopped for an ice cream
and went for a ride.
