So, it took him quite some time...
it took a little while...
but it seemed that Terry's frown
had turned into a smile

Except...

it was not a happy smile,
it was very much a frown.

Now when people looked at him,
his frown was upside down.

And Terry kept on frowning,
even though he could now talk:
upside down, stuck on his head,
now he couldn't walk!

So, sometimes it can take no time,
other times, a while,
but even an enormous frown
can turn into a smile.
You never need a reason
to stand up proud and tall:
being upside down or different doesn't matter... at all!

The end

for Pam.
