There's a MOOSE on the LOOSE

LUCY FEATHER • STEPHAN LOMP

nosy crow

Did you see that?

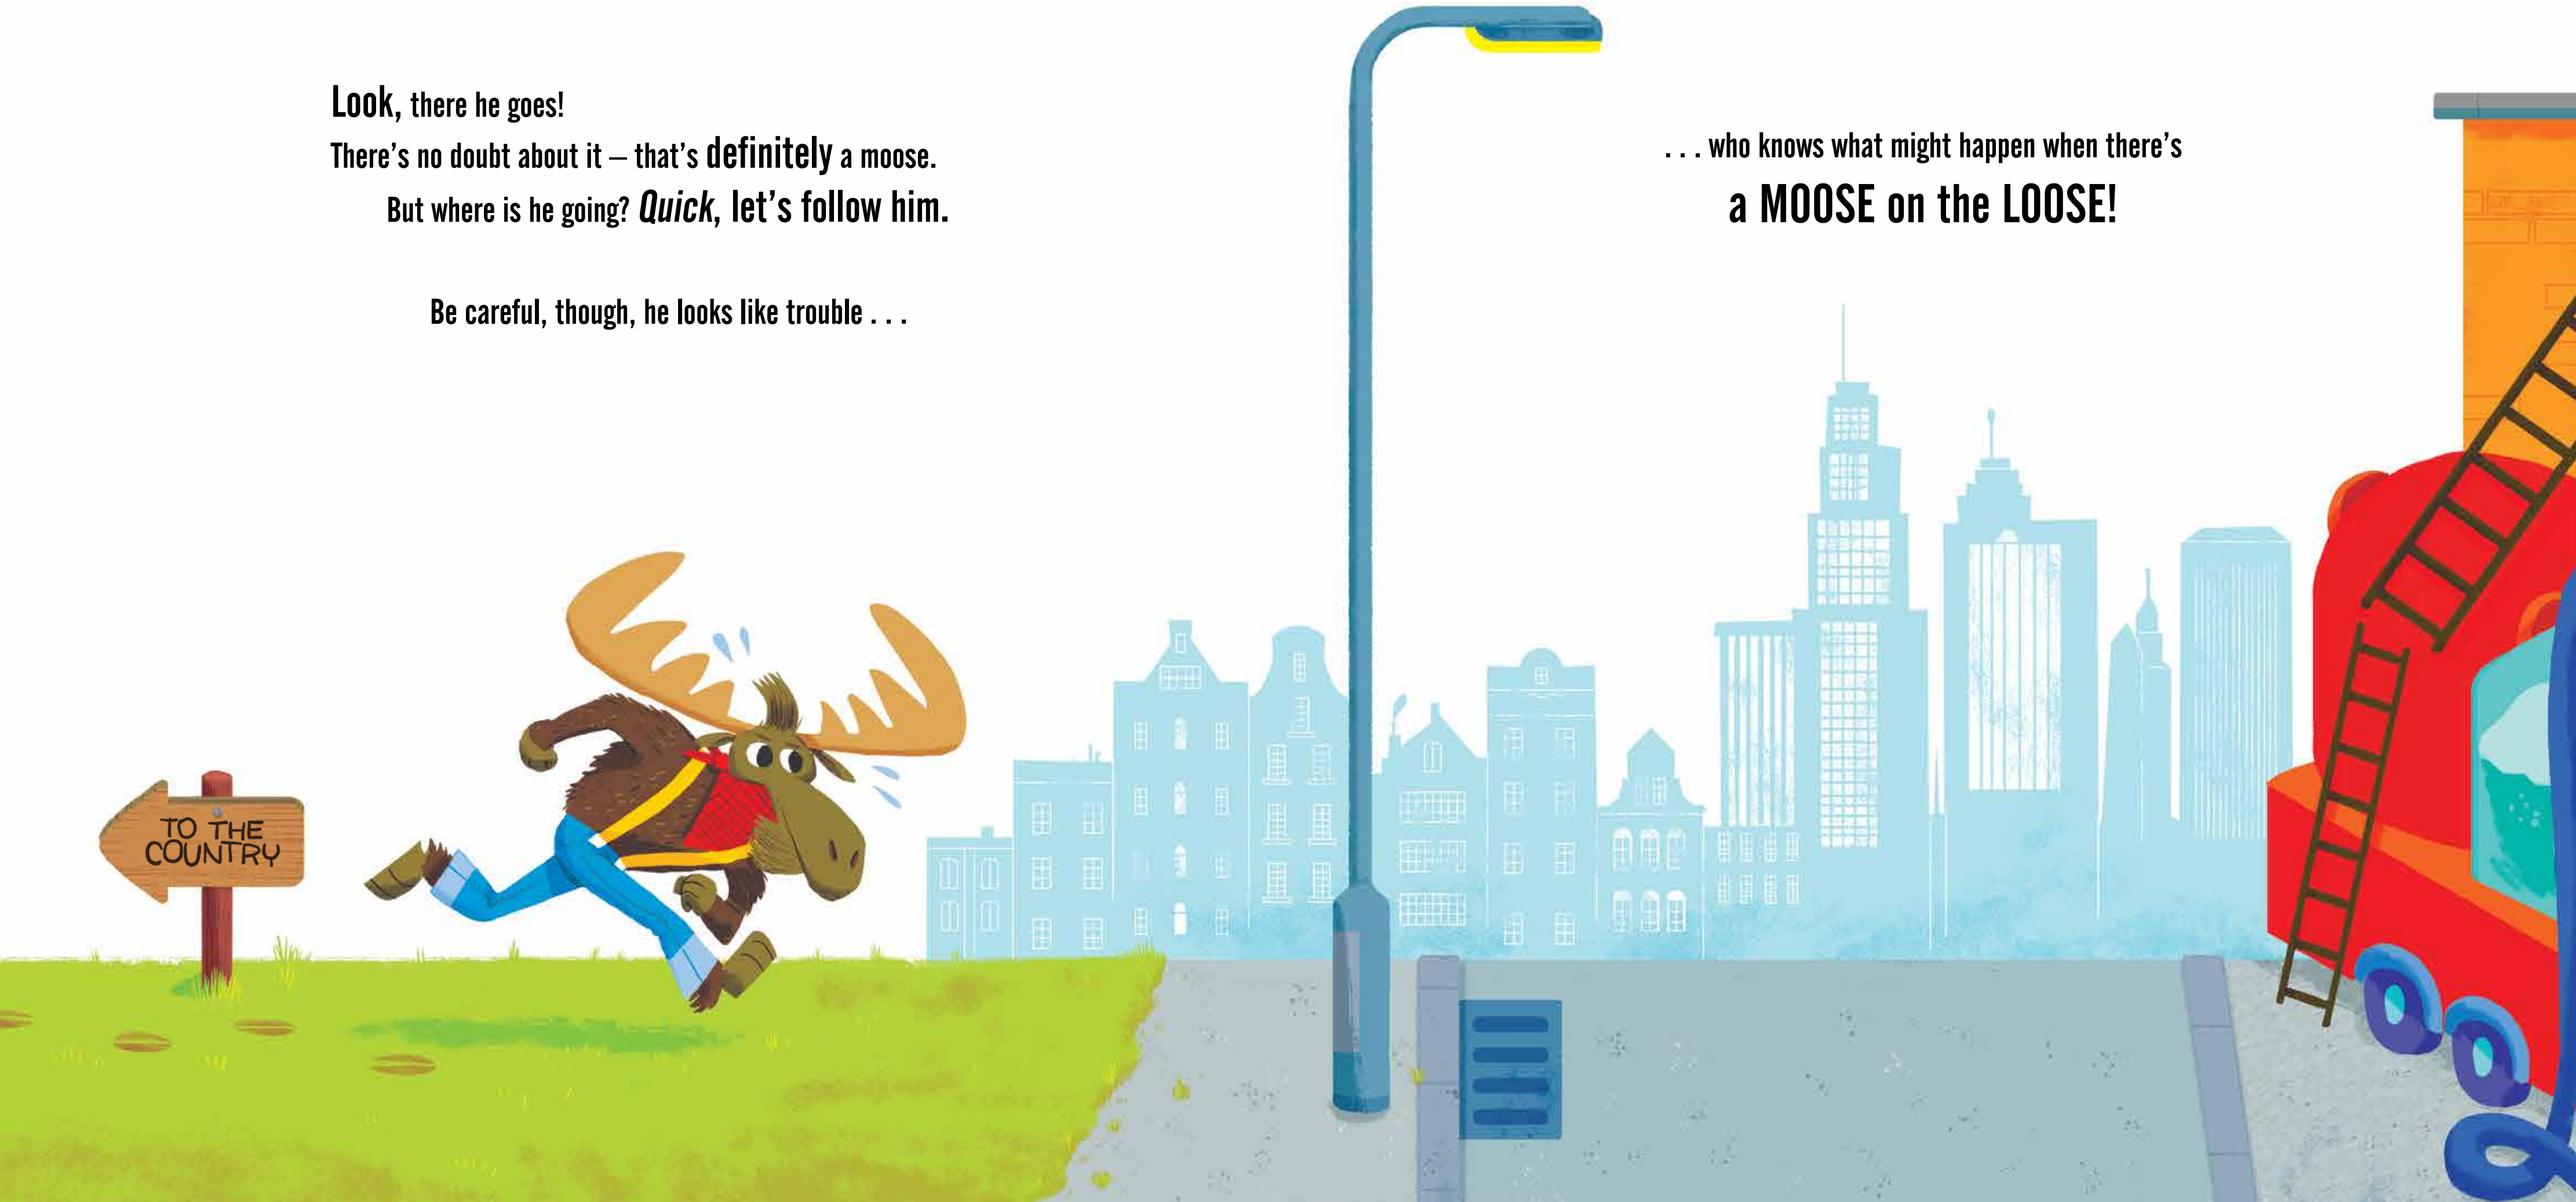

Was it a MOOSE?

Well, something just ran past and it looked like a moose . . .

Look, there he goes!
There's no doubt about it – that's definitely a moose.
But where is he going? Quick, let's follow him.

Be careful, though, he looks like trouble . . .

. . . who knows what might happen when there's a MOOSE on the LOOSE!

Oh dear! There's a moose on the loose in the fire station. What's he doing there? And what's that caught on his antler? OH NO! It's one of the fireman's buckets! The fireman had better follow Moose if he wants it back. Can you help him find the way? Can you follow the arrows?

Uh-oh, this department store is really busy, isn't it? Look at all those people shopping! But where is the moose on the loose? Can you see him? There he is, and now there's a wellie on his antler, too – he's in such a hurry, he hasn't even noticed! But the shoe shop assistant is NOT happy. Now there's a fireman AND a shop assistant chasing Moose! But which way should they go? Can you help? Be careful you don't trip over all those books!

There are LOTS of interesting books in this library, aren't there? But this moose on the loose has no time to read. And neither does the librarian – Moose has got a dictionary stuck on his antlers and the librarian wants it back! But where is Moose going? And how is everyone going to catch him? You'll have to show them which way to go. Quick, there's no time to lose!

Wow! What a lovely big museum! There are so many things to see but this moose on the loose is in too much of a hurry to look around. He's accidentally run off with a dinosaur bone and the museum guide won't stand for that. But look, Moose is dashing off again and everyone else is still on the top floor. Can you see a way down? It's a good job you're here to help, isn't it?
