

extracts from

The Bedtime Bear

Written by

Ian Whybrow

Illustrated by

Axel Scheffler

Published by

Macmillan Children's Books

All Text is Copyright © of the Author and/or Illustrator

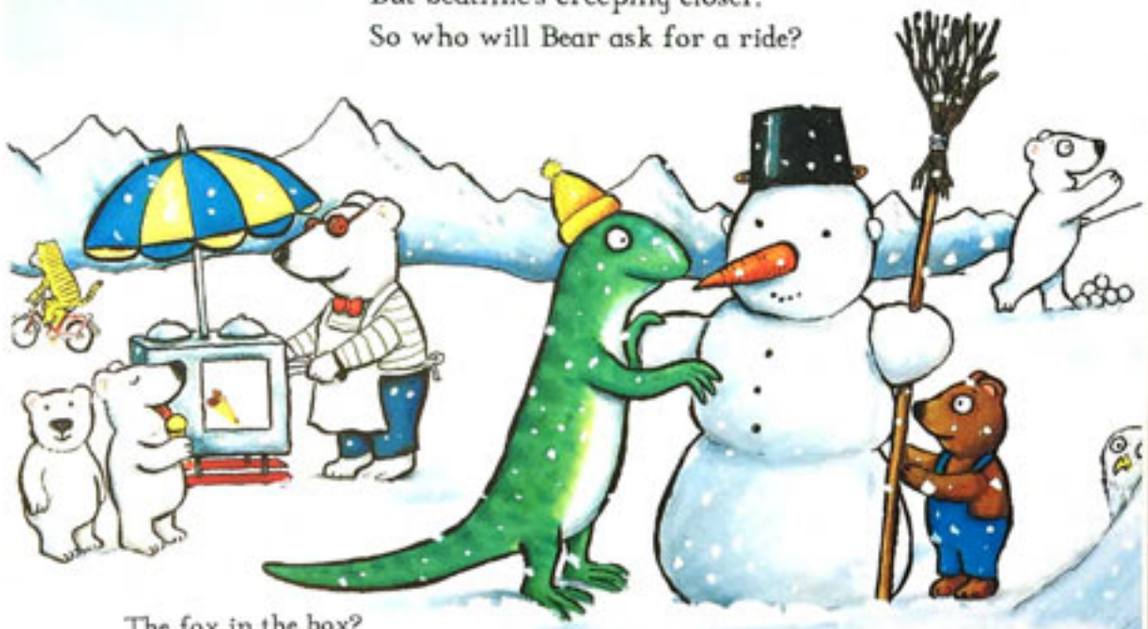

Please print off and read at your leisure.

Lovereading4kids.co.uk

Who's that jingling in the jungle
When Bear's on his way to bed?
The tiger's busy cycling.
Will you have a look instead?
jingly, jingly!
jingly, jingly!
HISS!
ROAR!
TO THE NORTH POLE
jingly.
jingly!

Who's that jingling in the jungle
When Bear's on his way to bed?
The tiger's busy cycling.
Will you have a look instead?
jingly, jingly!
jingly, jingly!
HISS!
ROAR!
TO THE NORTH POLE
squeaky, squeaky!

Here's a lizard in a blizzard
And it's fun to play outside.
But bedtime's creeping closer.
So who will Bear ask for a ride?

The fox in the box?

The skunk in the bunk?

Um, no, he's asleep.

Beep, beep!

Here's a lizard in a blizzard
And it's fun to play outside.
But bedtime's creeping closer.
So who will Bear ask for a ride?
The fox in the box?
No, he's reading.
The skunk in the bunk?
Um, no, he's asleep.
MOUSE MOTEL
The sheep in the jeep?
YES!