Inside the Globe

Over 3,000 people cram into the playhouse. Lords and ladies watch from galleries, but it's cheaper to stand in the 'yard' in front of the stage. There's a rowdy atmosphere. People eat, drink, cheer and boo, as the actors perform Shakespeare's play.

Pack the playhouse with the audience, actors on the stage, and musicians playing during the performance.

London life

Around the year 1600, Shakespeare came to London. London was by far the biggest city in England, a bustling mix of craftsmen and shop-keepers, peasants and nobles. Actors drank in rowdy taverns, and sneaky criminals prowled the filthy streets.

Use the stickers to fill this street with sights that greeted Shakespeare when he arrived in London.

Macbeth

Returning from a battle, the Scottish lords Macbeth and Banquo meet three witches. After the witches tell Macbeth that he will become king, power and ambition turn him mad – and into a murderer.

Fill in this scene with characters from Macbeth, and creatures from the witches' magical spells.

Romeo and Juliet

Romeo and Juliet are in love, but their families are sworn enemies. Set in the Italian city of Verona, Shakespeare's famous love story has sword fights, revenge – and a tragic ending for the two lovers.

Add flowers and fireflies to the scene, as Romeo secretly visits Juliet on her balcony at night.
