

Lovereading4kids.co.uk is a book website created for parents and children to make choosing books easy and fun

Opening extract from

We're Going on a Bear Hunt Activity Book

Written by

Michael Rosen

Illustrated by

Helen Oxenbury

Published by

Walker Books Ltd

All Text is Copyright © of the Author and/or Illustrator

Please print off and read at your leisure.

Lovereading4kids.co.uk

Write your own version of We're Going on a Bear Hunt. Fill in the blank spaces to tell your own story. You can be dramatic or silly – be as imaginative as you can.

We're going on a .....hunt.

We're going to catch a.....one.

What a .....day!

We're not .....

Uh-uh! .....

We can't go..... it.

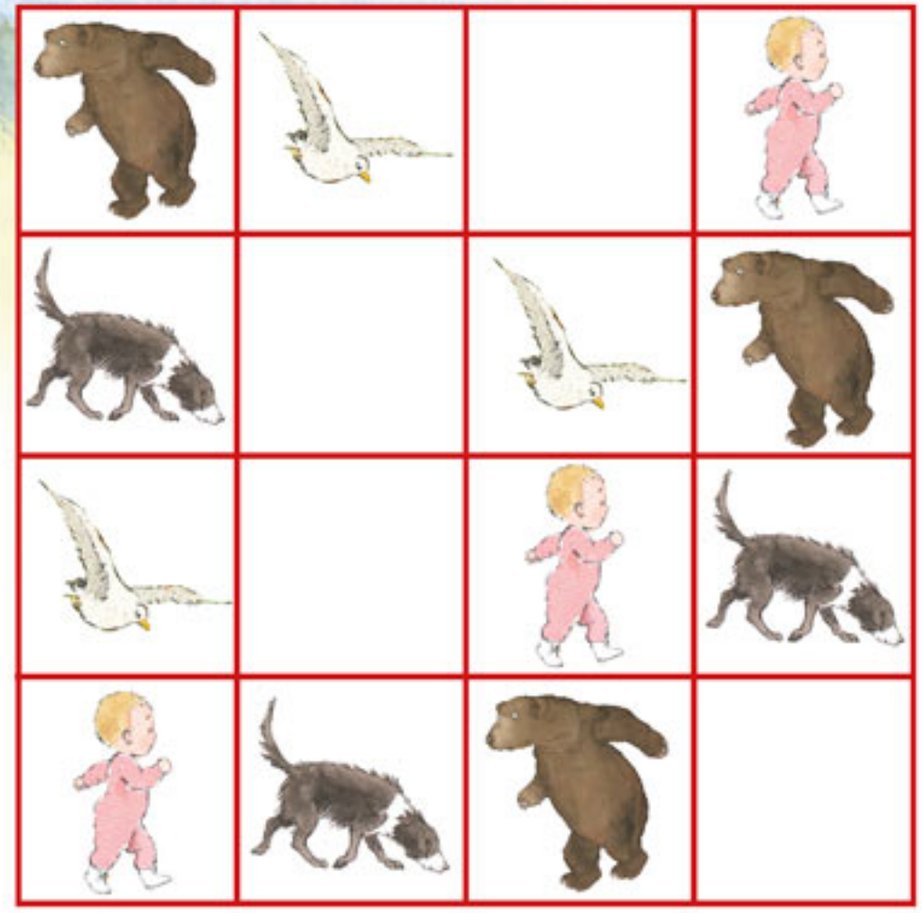

We can't go..... it.

Oh no! We've got to go.....it.

.....!

Four in a row

Draw in the empty boxes to complete the grid. Each row and each column should have one baby, one bear, one dog and one bird.

Bear biscuits

You will need:
an adult to help you
a big mixing bowl
a wooden spoon
a sieve
two non-stick baking trays
a wire cooling rack

Ingredients:
250g butter (at room temperature)
140g caster sugar
1 egg yolk
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
250g plain flour
50g cocoa powder
1 packet of chocolate buttons

Step 1: Preheat the oven to 180°C or 160°C for a fan oven.

Step 2: Mix the butter and sugar in a big bowl with a wooden spoonuntil it's light and fluffy.

Step 3: Ask your adult to separate the egg and then add the yolk and the vanilla extract to your mixture. Stir until it's all combined.

Step 4: Sift in the flour and cocoa powder and mix it until you have make sure a nice thick dough.

Step 5: Using your hands, shape the dough into 30 balls and squash them down onto the baking trays. Add buttons for the bear's claws.

Step 6: Ask your adult to put the trays in the oven for you and bake them for 12-15 minutes.

Step 7: Get your adult to transfer the biscuits to a wire rack to cool.

Step 8: Enjoy!

Caught in a snowstorm
All snowflakes have six sides but every single one is different - fill this space with a flurry of different snowflakes. How many can you fit on the page?

Join the dots to see who doesn't want to go through the cave. Colour in the picture when you've finished.

