Bears at the Beach

Macmillan Children's Books

Today we went on an adventure.

Dad packed a parasol, Mum rolled a giant towel,
and I brought my brand new kite.

I couldn't wait to fly it!

And even though I was excited,

I sat still and didn't wriggle,

as me, Mum and Dad all went to...

... the beach!

"I'm going to lie down and read," said Mum.

But the beach is not for lying on, it's for Playing on!

So that's what we did.

Then we went on a boat around the bay.

After lunch I couldn't wait to fly my kite.

But Mum and Dad
said there was no wind
and I needed the wind
to help me.

But my kite wanted to fly, I could tell!
So I ran and ran as fast as I could.

"Mum, Dad, look!"
