Nouns

Nouns are naming words. They tell you what everything is called. Names that start with capital letters are proper nouns. Ben is a proper noun. So are Nicola and New York. Your name is a proper noun.

Read the story. There are pictures instead of nouns.

This is the  of , who went out one dark  when he should have been in . He crept down the  and slipped out of the . The naughty  walk the  and into the . First he met a  .  wasn't nervous. Then he met a  .

 wasn't scared. Then he met an  !  wasn't very frightened. But then he met a   was absolutely terrified. He ran back to his  as fast as his  would carry him in the back , up the  and into his  again, and fell fast asleep. Z Z Z Z Z

The

Nouns are the words that name things.
