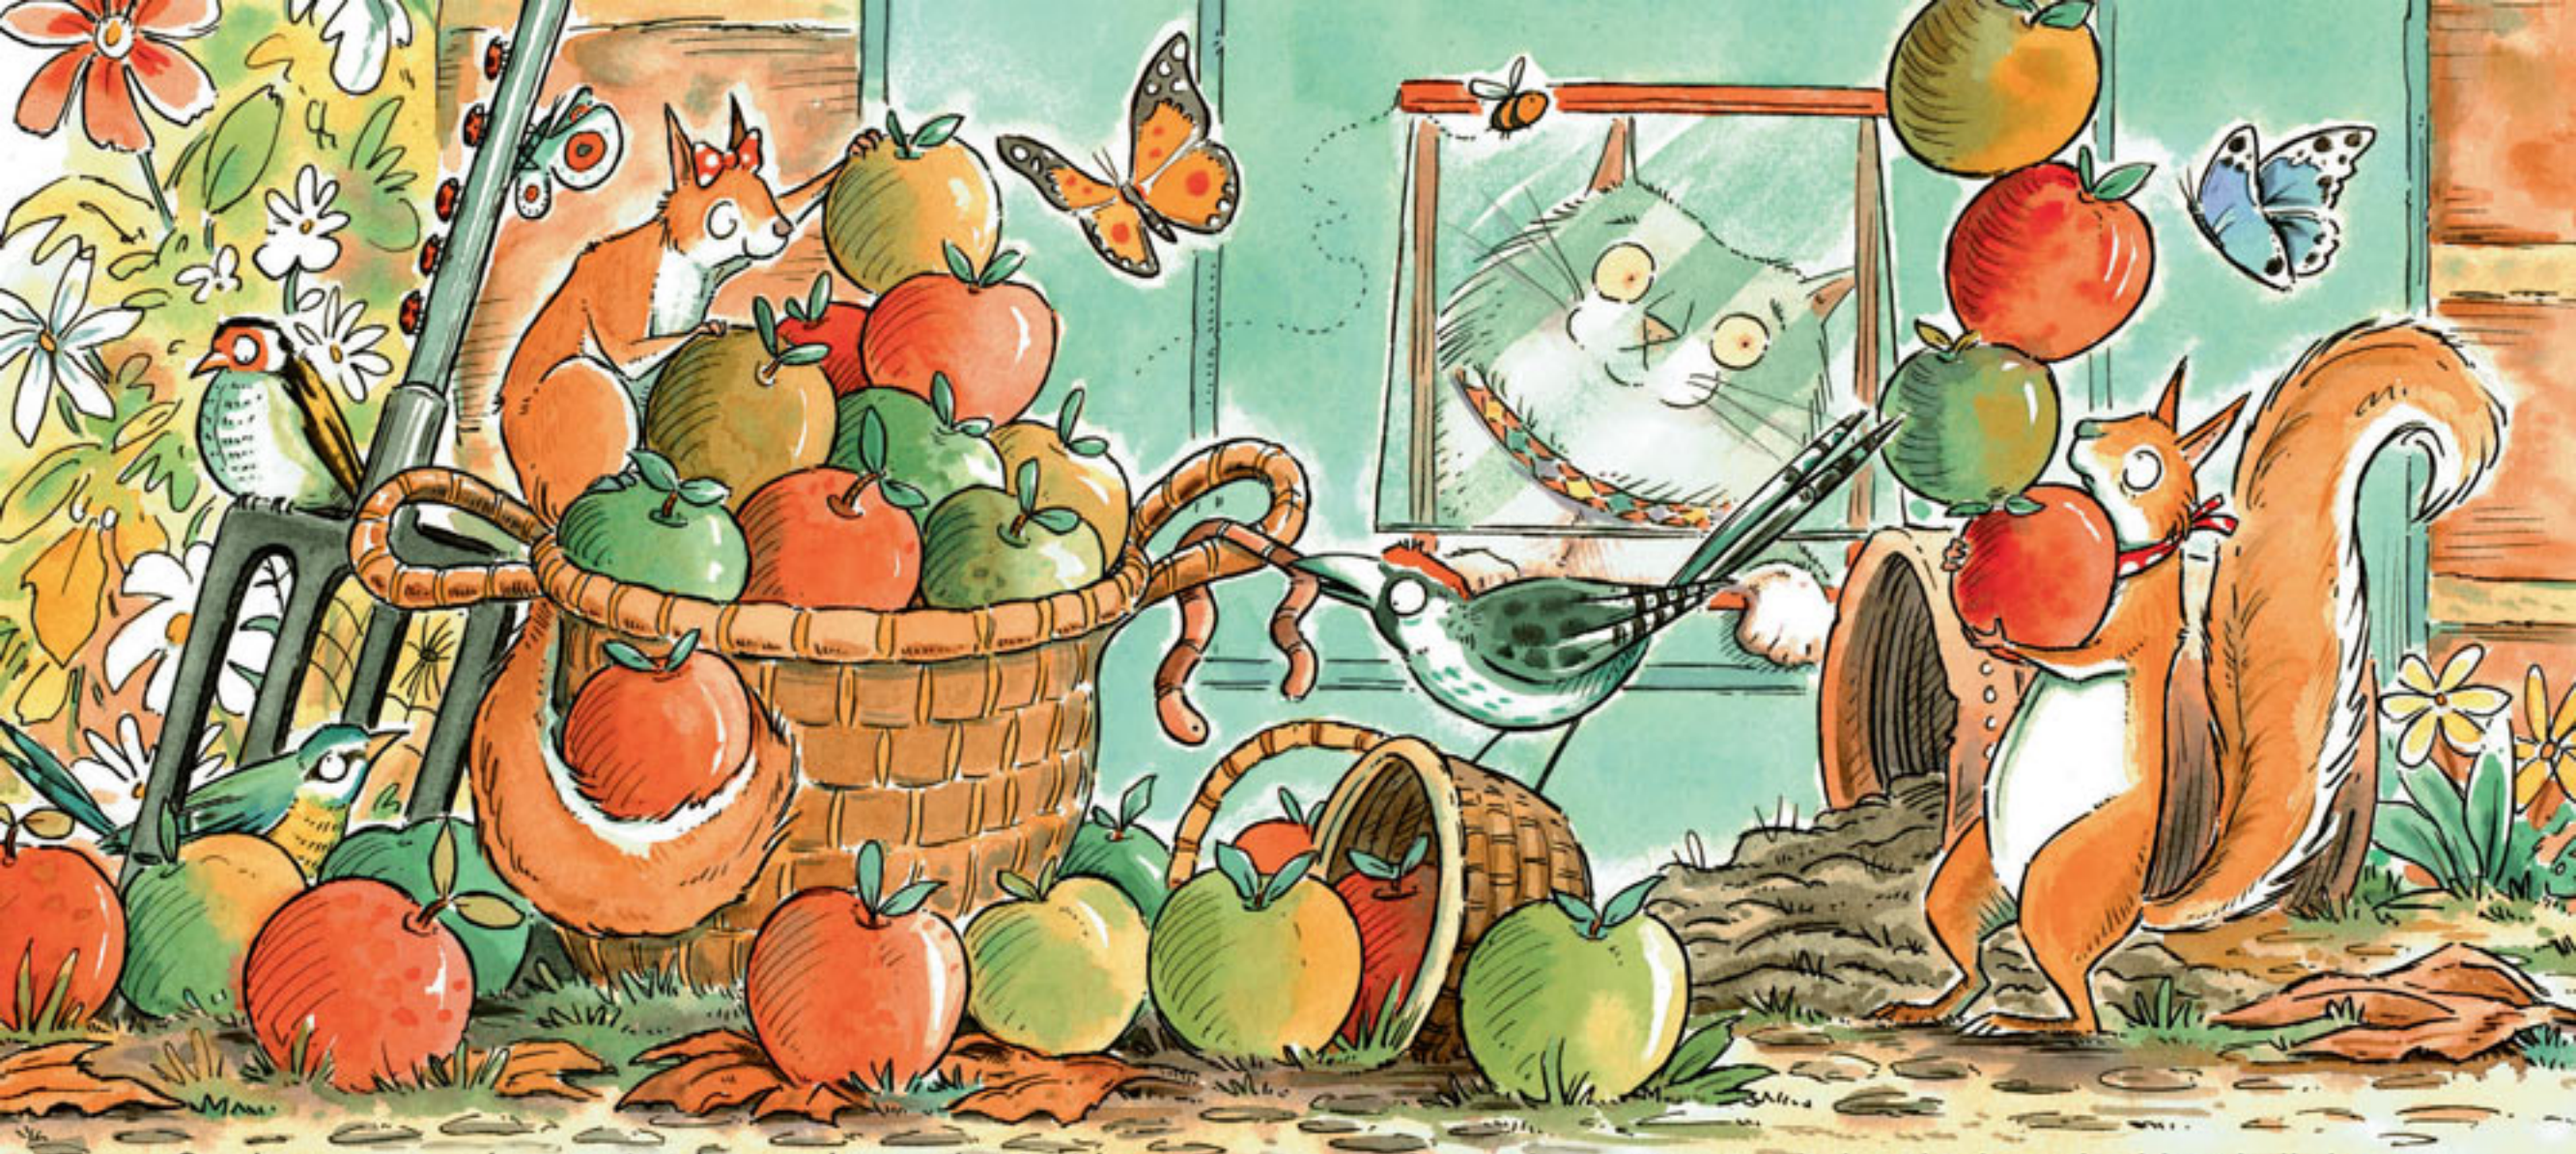
"Look!" said Yo-Yo. "Down there on the floor,
There's a really big basket next to the door."
"Oh no!" cried Yasmin. "There are too many inside,
Let's find a new place for the apples to hide."



So the two naughty squirrels put the apples inside,
What a wonderful place for their harvest to hide.

Soon they were tired, they had worked hard all day,
So they left all their apples and fell asleep in their drey.
