It's Christmas Eve and Elmer has a treat for the young elephants – if they stay out of sight,
they might get to see someone
very special fly in!

Elmer chose a tree that would be easy to put back later. The youngsters helped to carry it.
By now it was late.
"Straight to bed when we get home," said Elmer.
"We have a lot to do tomorrow."

The next day everyone helped to decorate the tree.
"The presents, the presents!"
shouted the young elephants.
