A shrew eats 80–90% of his body weight in food daily...

Every picture tells a story. What do you think that story is?

Observe

Marvel at every encounter with nature, from the tiny ladybird to the mighty whale, and from the deep sea to the Aurora Borealis.

Inquire

Step into the role of narrator for each visual story, engaging the brain, firing the imagination and inspiring further discovery.

Wonder

From an animal which uses a 'scarf' to another which uses an 'umbrella', nature has an uncanny ability to amaze and astound.
