At the hardware shop, George knew exactly where to find the magic star varnish. They wasted no time stocking up.

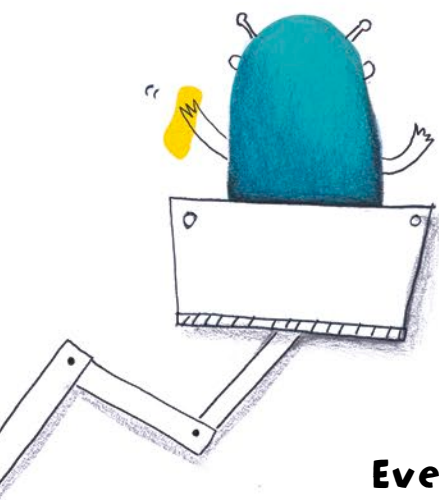

There once was a tiny alien with a very BIG job.

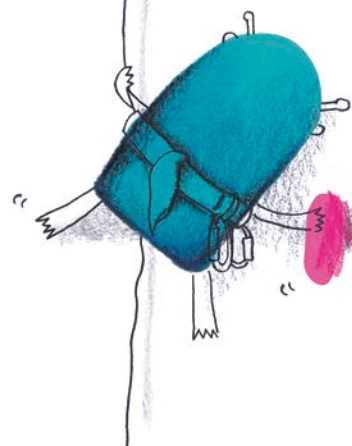

Alien was a star shiner. Every night, he kept the stars shining. Alien took his job VERY seriously — maybe a bit too seriously.

Alien never took time off to do anything fun,
and he didn't have any friends.

Every day he shined . . .

Shining is all he did! But one night, something disastrous happened . . .
