Late at night,
if you hear a knock at
the door, it's best not to answer.
YOU wouldn't, would you? Because you may just find a mysterious . . .

That night, when Granny was softly
snoring, Squeak
tiptoed downstairs.
"I'll just have a
taste," he thought.
What a bad idea!

Squeak
grunted
and growled.

He
burped
and slurped...

dribbled
and wiggled.

And he grew and grew
and grew until...

Chomp . . . slurp . . . BURP!
Pizza and pancakes!
Doughnuts
and dumplings!
It STILL wasn't enough!

"MORE"
Hyde growled.

And he hit the town
to feed his mega-munchies.

WHAT'S THAT SMELL?

SAUSAGES!

But all of a sudden, his tummy began to ache, and . . .

PARP!
went Hyde.

POOF!
he disappeared.

PING!
Squeak was back.

Ooo - I do feel
funny!

GOT 'EM!
