I've got a new cat.

She just turned up on my doorstep one day looking rather hungry.

She obviously liked my dinner because she's stayed ever since.

It's fine. I like cats.

There's just one teeny, tiny problem.
I expect everyone with a new cat has it, but I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO CALL MY CAT.

I thought 'Kitty' would be just right.

It wasn't.

Sometimes my cat can be difficult to please.

So I thought I'd call her Princess High and Mighty.

But she didn't seem keen on the dress.

I tried out

PAT

and

Lorraine

TRICIA

and

ETHEL

tracey

and

JANE

and

Betty

Which are all lovely names . . .

. . . but not for a boy.
