There was once a little rhino
who was really rather large
and from the day that he was born
he bellowed,
"I'm in charge!"

Little Rhino loves to show the other animals who's boss, and when it comes to sharing – he will not!
But Rhino is about to learn that beastly behaviour is a bad idea . . .

I'M IN CHARGE!

Jeanne Willis & Jarvis

There was once a little rhino
who was really rather large
and from the day that he was born he bellowed, “I’m in charge!”

So when his darling daddy tried to tell him what to do, he cavorted and he snorted,
"Daddy, I'm in charge – not you!"

And when his muddy mummy told him when to go to bed, he shouted, "No, I will not go!"
"I'm in charge!" he said.

He did exactly as he pleased and threw his weight about.

When Warthog tried to cross his path, he tossed him with his snout.

He scattered all the meerkats and he startled poor Giraffe.

He squashed Baboon's banana when he would not give him half.
