HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

At bedtime or in a dimly lit room or tent, shine a beam of light from a torch, lamp or mobile phone through the window on each page to cast shadows of your favourite scenes on a wall or ceiling. Read along with the script provided for each one. If it's too dark to read, you can alternate between shining the light on the script and on the scene as you go.

Discover Dobby the house-elf, Buckbeak the Hippogriff and other fantastic creatures from the wizarding world as you read. Use your imagination – and have fun!

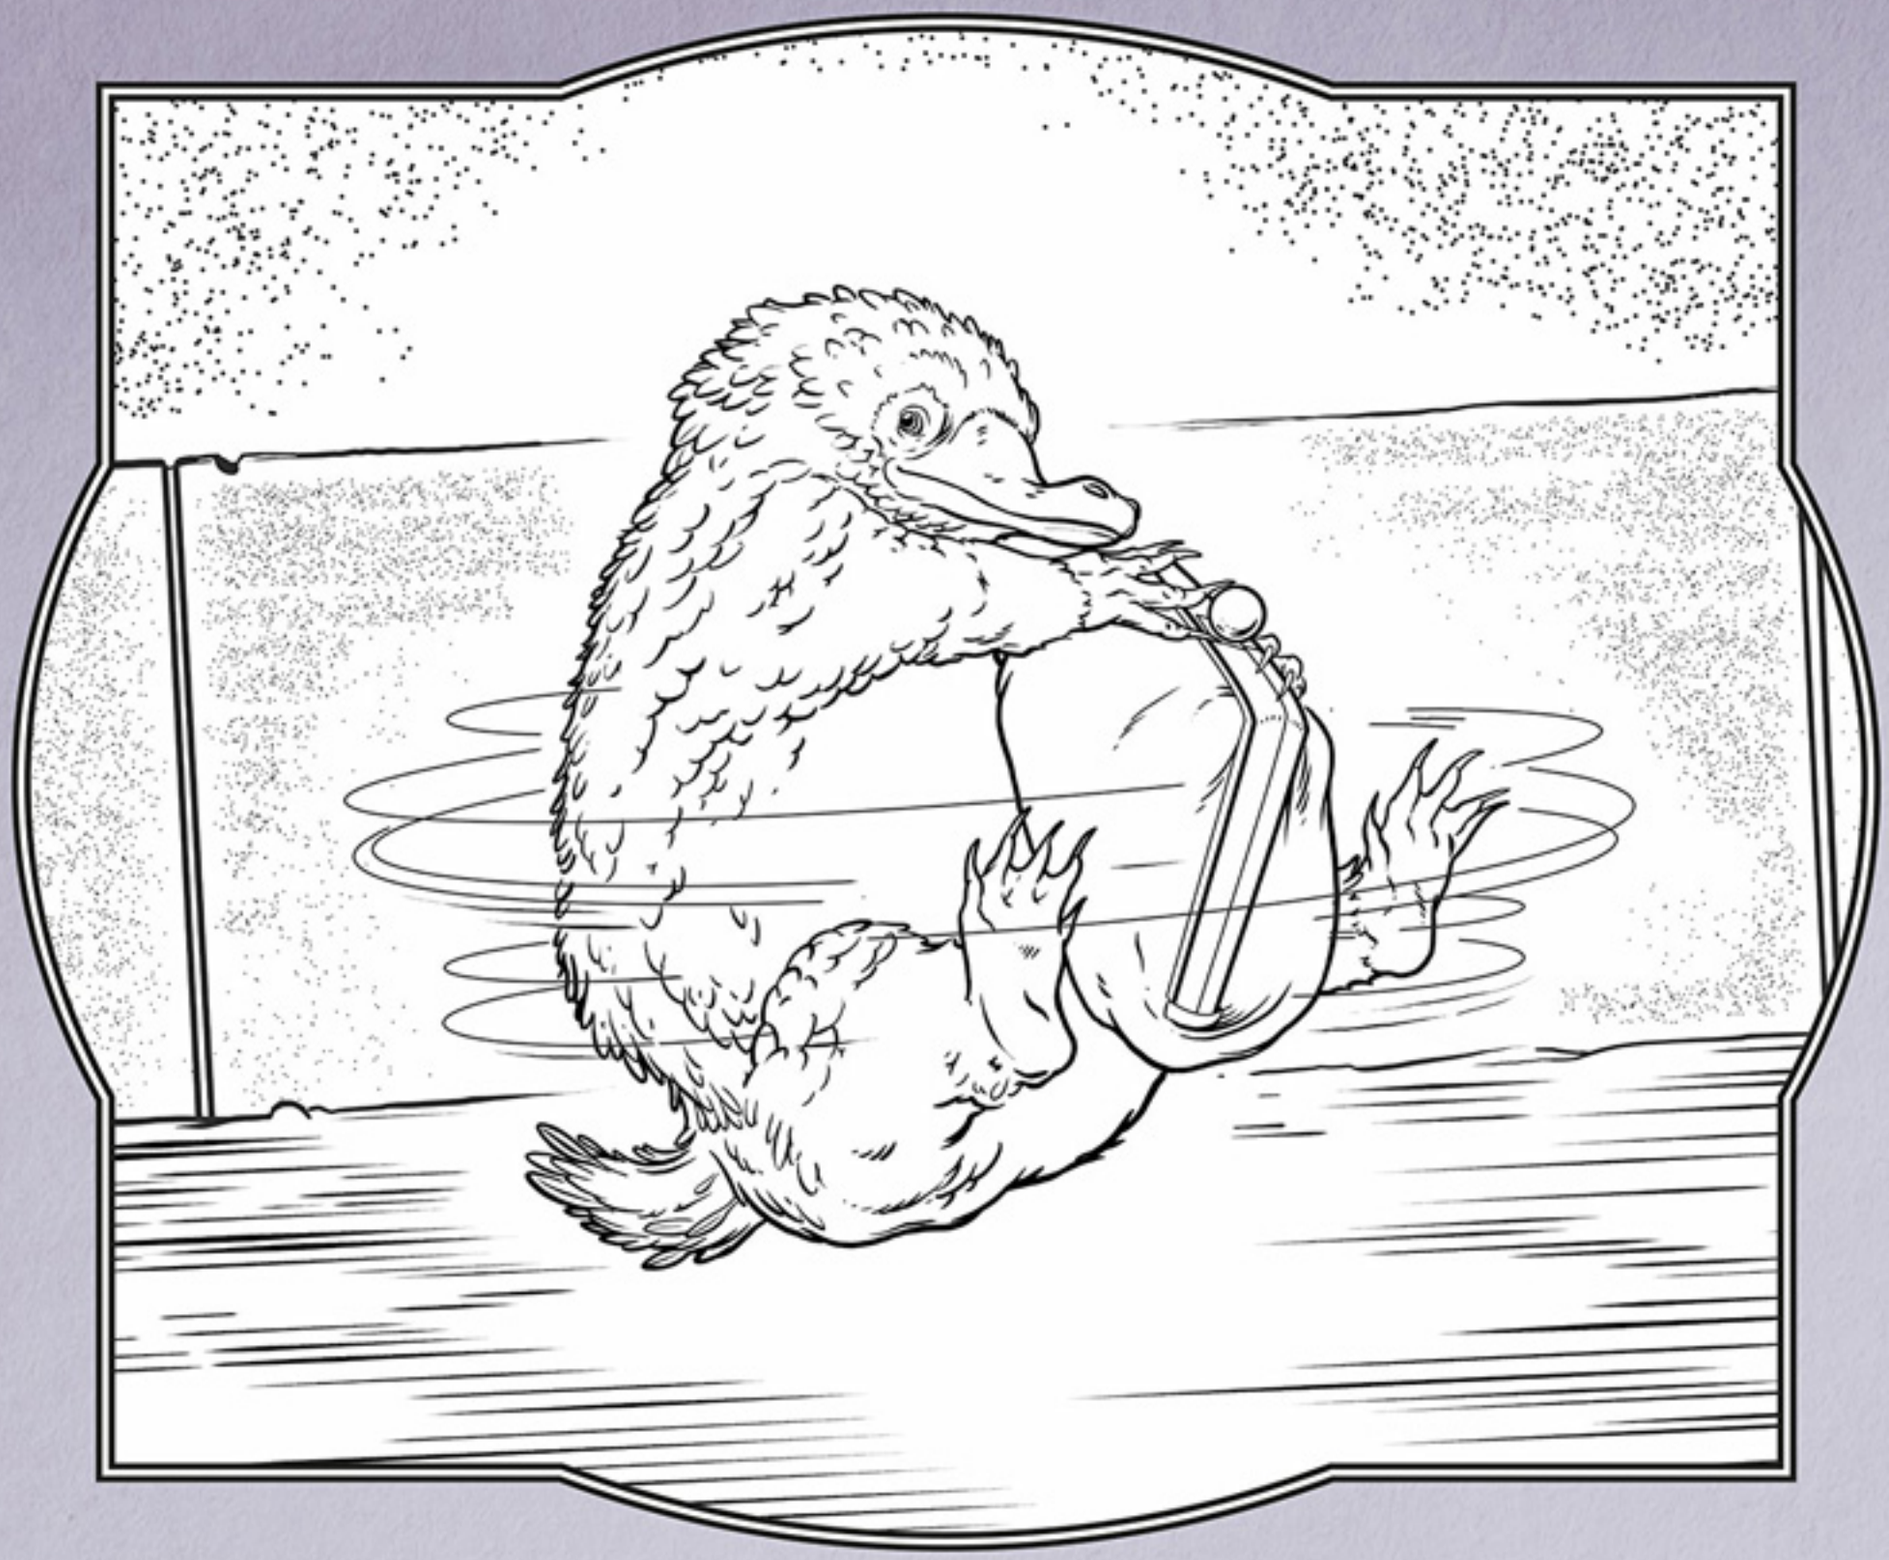

In this scene, Harry finds an unexpected visitor in his room.

HARRY: Not to be rude or anything, but this isn't a great time for me to have a house-elf in my bedroom.

DOBBY: Oh yes, sir. Dobby understands. It's just that Dobby has come to tell you ... It is difficult, sir ... Dobby wonders where to begin.

HARRY: Why don't you sit down?

In this scene, Newt Scamander tries to get ahold of a Niffler that has escaped from his case in search of treasure.

NEWT: For the last time, you pilfering pest – paws off what doesn't belong to you!

Newt shuts his case, then looks around at Jacob.

NEWT: I'm awfully sorry about all that—
