NED THE NATURE NUT'S NUTTY NATURE FACTS AND JOKES

ANDY SEED
ILLUSTRATED BY SARAH HORNE

Why don't squirrels go to Italian restaurants?

Have you ever tried burying a pizza?!

Do you want to hear about the hedgehog that went to the barber's?

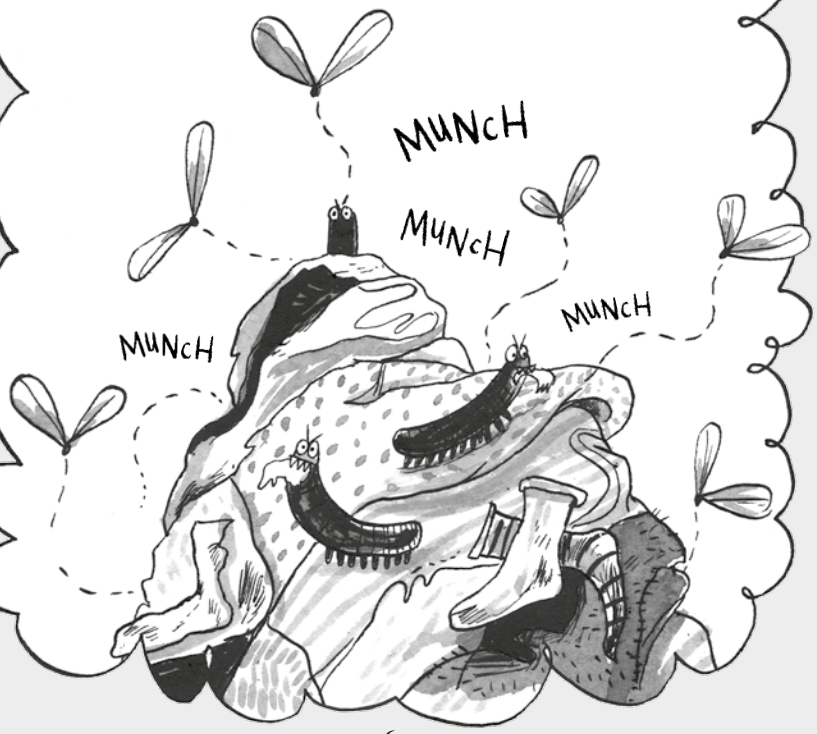

There's no point.

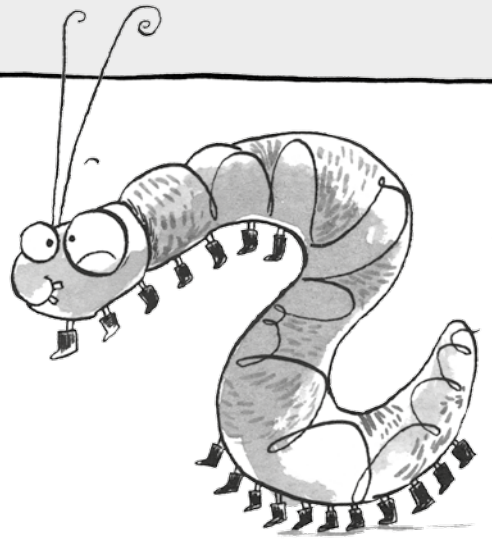

What's the best animal to be when you're cold?

A little otter.

MOUTHY MOTH FACT

The clothes moth does not eat at all (probably because it doesn't have a mouth!), but beware – its caterpillars eat woolly jumpers, socks and even carpets.

What has 100 legs but no sense?

A sillipede.

What's a butterfly's best school subject?

Moths.

Where at school can you always find an eagle?

In the dictionary.

Why are ladybirds no good at hide and seek?

They're always spotted.

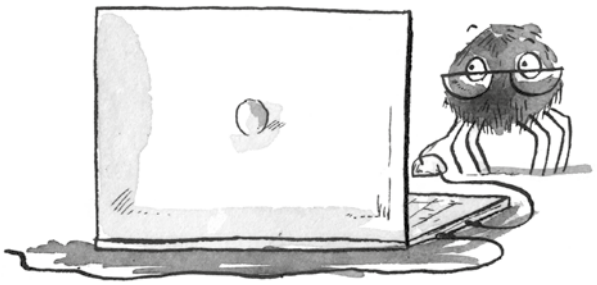

What do you call a deer with no eyes?

No idea.

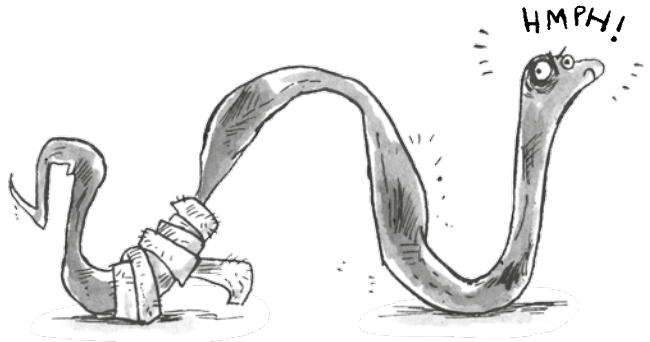

Where do spiders do most of their shopping?

On the web.

FIGHTY FACT

Male smooth snakes are not so smooth when it comes to competing for a female mate. They will grab and bite each other until one gives up and slinks off.

How do you keep flies out of the kitchen?

Put a bucket of poo in the living room.

THISTLY THACT

In Roman times, it was thought that eating thistles could cure baldness.

Why does nothing bother a quiet owl?

It doesn't give a hoot.

What is a toad's favourite film?

Star Warts.

How do herb gardens get so much done?

They have plenty of thyme.

What's a mouse's favourite game?

Hide and squeak.
