He was born a really long time ago,

before computers or mobile phones or television.

He grew up on a farm with pigs and corn and carrots . . .

and eggs.

In nursery school
he got chicken pox.*

*Not from the chickens.

He had to stay home from school.
So he read stories about secret gardens
and wizards and a little engine that could.

In junior school

he stole his first kiss.

After senior school his wish was to study horticulture,
