It was night-time in the supermarket but Supertato and the veggies were going for the burn.

"Come on, veggies, you can do it!"

"Oh no!" shouted Pear.
"Broccoli's in the bagging area!"

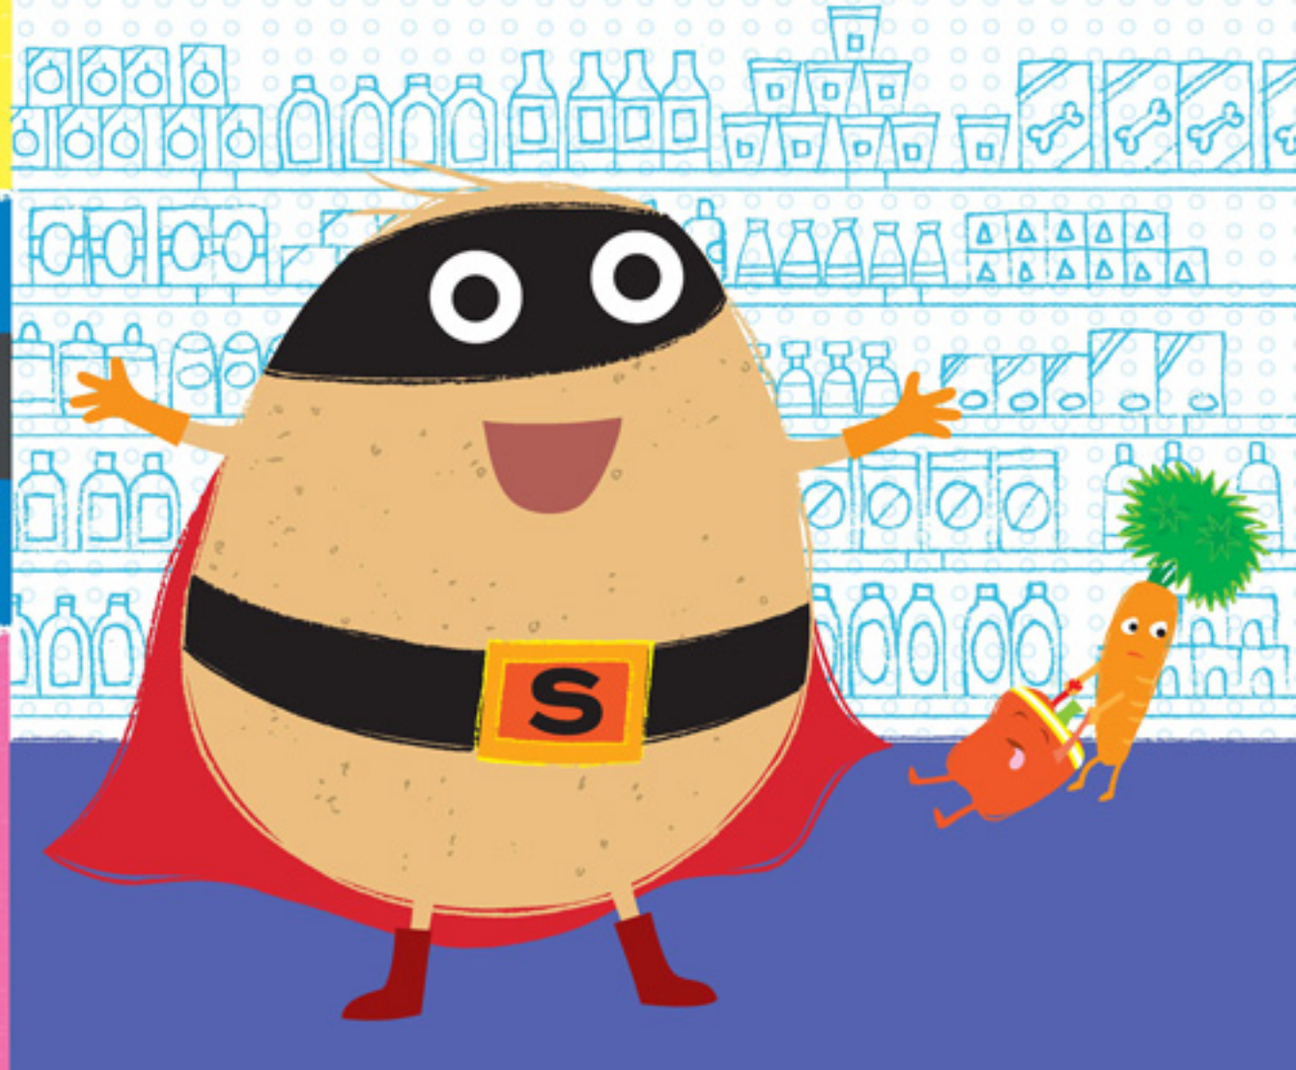

"Quick, Grapefruit, turn off the conveyor!" shouted Supertato.

PHEW!

"What's the point of all this nonsense?" said Carrot.

"To keep fit of course! Whoever heard of an unhealthy vegetable?" Supertato grinned.

"Just look at yourselves!
It's time we got you fruit and veggies into shape."

Supertato thought for a minute. "I know - let's have a sports day!" he said.

Everyone groaned.

"There'll be prizes . . . "

Everyone cheered!

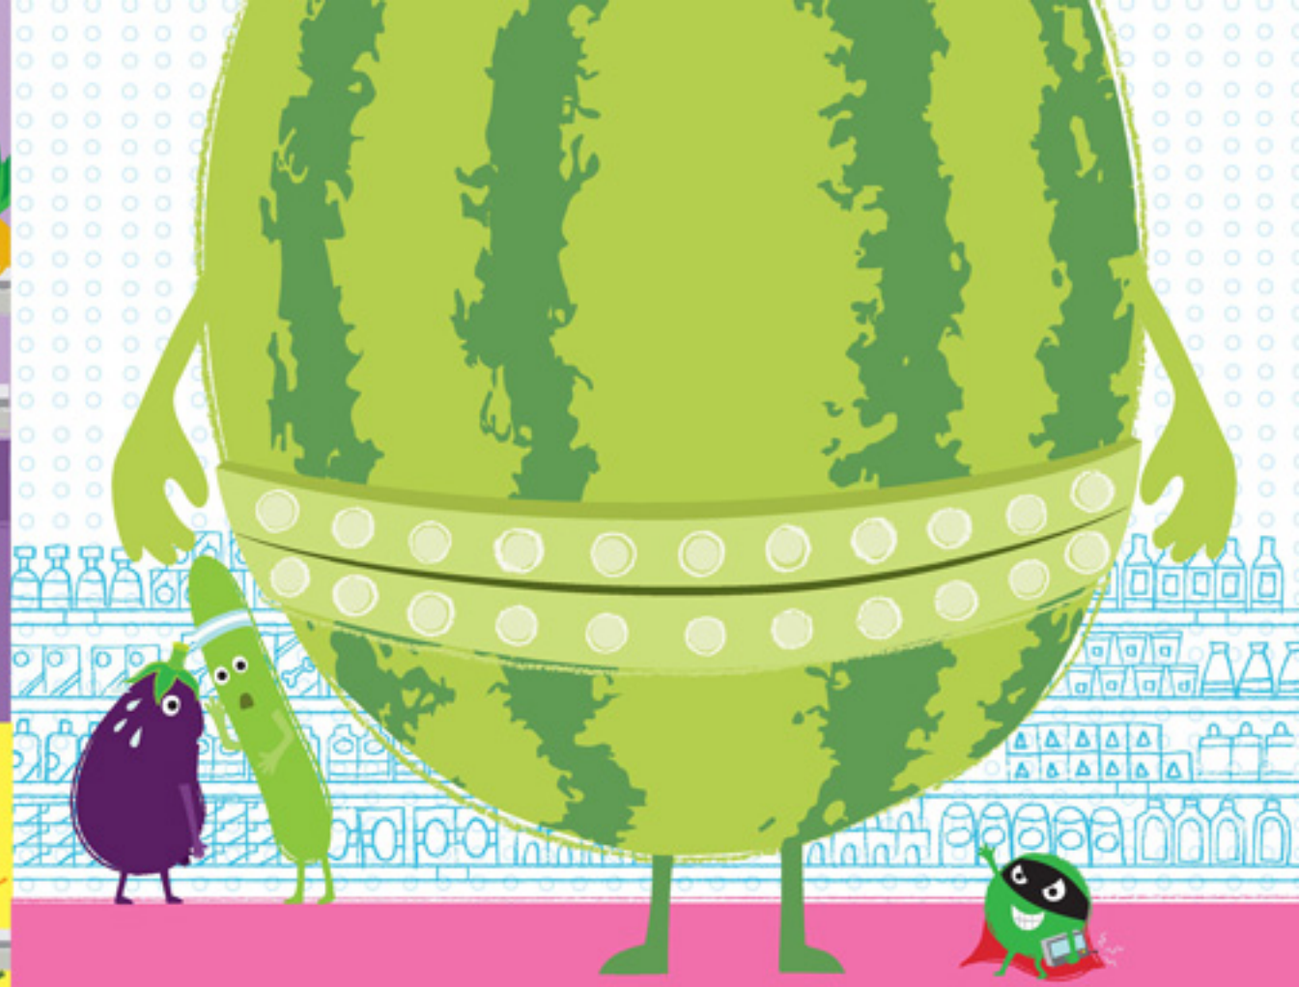

"ATTENTION!" shouted Supertato as they all limbered up. "It's time for the first events. Running and jumping and spinning.

Asparagus, you can be the starter."

Then suddenly the ground shook.

"Oh no," said Cucumber. "It's The Evil Pea!"

Everyone gasped. The Evil Pea was grinning. "Gloria here wishes to enter your competition," he said.

"A pleasure to meet you, Gloria," said Supertato.

"Hmmm," thought Supertato.

"Ok, let's start the race.

Carrot, you're in lane one,
Broccoli lane two,
Cucumber lane three,
Gloria . . . you can take four, five and six.

Over to you, Asparagus."
