FAIRY TALE PETS

TRACEY CORDEROY

JORGE MARTÍN

LITTLE TIGER
LONDON

Bob lived on a nice neat hill,
in a nice neat house, with neat roses.

His dog, called Rex, was friendly and smart.
And hardly ever made nasty smells.

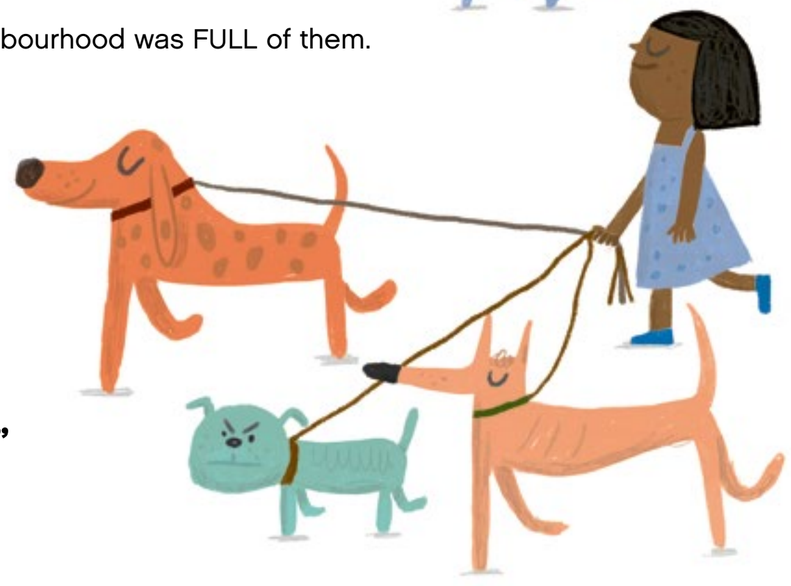

And life was perfectly neat and fine,
except . . . they were very, very poor.

“I need to find a job,” said Bob.
“But whatever could I do . . . ?”
Then Bob remembered. He loved animals.

“That’s it! I’ll look after pets!” he cried. “Easy!”

And the neighbourhood was FULL of them.

So that very night Bob and Rex stuck posters up all around town. They said:

NEED HELP WITH YOUR PET?

THEN BOB (AND REX) ARE FOR YOU!
WE WALK DOGS. WE SIT CATS. WE HOUSE HAMSTERS.
NO PET TOO BIG (OR TOO SMALL).

CALL ROUND TO THE HOUSE ON THE HILL!
