

Helping you choose books for children

opening extract from

The Cat Who Wanted to go Home

written by

Jill Tomlinson

illustrated by

Paul Howard

published by

Egmont

All text is copyright of the author and illustrator

please print off and read at your leisure.

Suzy was a little striped cat.

She lived in France with a fisherman who had four sons;
Pierre was ten, Henri was eight, Paul was six and Gaby was four.
When they stood in a row they looked like a set of steps.

Gaby didn't know the proper way to stroke a cat.
Most cats like being stroked from head to tail, the way the fur lies.
But Gaby always stroked Suzy backwards from tail to head
and Suzy LOVED it.

England

France

Chez-moi

(Sounds like shay-mwa)
Meaning: My home

Merci

(Sounds like mare-see)
Meaning: Thank you

Au Revoir

(Sounds like oh revwar)
Meaning: Goodbye

First published in this edition 2008
by Egment UK Limited
EPK Kensington High Street, London W8 5HA
The Car when Wanted to go Home first published 1977
by Methuen & Co Ltd

Copyright © 1972 The Estate of J. H. Lowenstein
Reprinted by permission of the Estate
Illustrations © 2004 Fred Howard
Fred Howard has asserted his moral rights
0070-01 X 1-4052 2602 + 240
0070-1 X 1-4052 2602 + 240
0070-1 X 1-4052 2673 + 240
0070-1 X 1-4052 2673 + 240
1-3-02 012 66 + 2
All rights reserved

A 4.10 catalogue record for this title is available from the British Library

Printed in India

For Tricia and her children,
Joanna, Roderick and Caroline –
not forgetting D.H.
J.T.

For Beatrice
P.H.

words by Jill Tomlinson

The Cat
who wanted
to go Home

illustrated by
Paul Howard

One day, Suzy found a huge basket in a field. She climbed in, settled in the shade under a stool and was soon fast asleep.

When she woke up, the basket was in the sky! There was a man with her.

"Hello, little cat," he said.
"You will have to come with me to England."

Suzy didn't want to go. She wanted to stay in France with the boys.

"CHEZ-MOI!"

she wailed.

She wanted to go home.

