First published in 2017 in Great Britain by Barrington Stoke Ltd
18 Walker Street, Edinburgh, EH3 7LP

www.barringtonstoke.co.uk

Text © 2017 Jonathan Meres
Illustrations © 2017 Hannah Coulson

The moral right of Jonathan Meres and Hannah Coulson to be identified as the author and illustrator of this work has been asserted in accordance with the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act, 1988

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced in whole or in any part in any form without the written permission of the publisher

A CIP catalogue record for this book is available from the British Library upon request

ISBN: 978-1-78112-756-8

Printed in China by Leo

This book is in a super readable format for young readers beginning their independent reading journey.

JONATHAN MERES

Mint Choc Chip at the Market Café

With illustrations by

Hannah Coulson

In memory of Tony's Fabrics
1952–2004

Chapter 1

To Market, To Market

Priya liked all seven days of the week.

But there were three days she liked best.

In third place was Tuesday. On Tuesday, Priya played football after school. She was goalie because she loved diving for the ball and getting muddy.

Friday was Priya's second best day of the week. On Friday, she went to Science Club and did experiments and learned about Space.

But Saturday was Priya's favourite day of all. On Saturday, she went to the market with her mum and dad and Nana-ji.

Priya's mum and dad had a stall at the market. It was called Sharma's Pet Supplies. It sold food for cats and dogs and other animals. It sold cages for hamsters and gerbils. Bedding for rabbits. Fish tanks and bird seed. Toys and treats. Everything a pet owner might need. Apart from actual pets, that is.

SHARMA'S PET SUPPLIES