SUPERTATO

EVIL PEA RULES

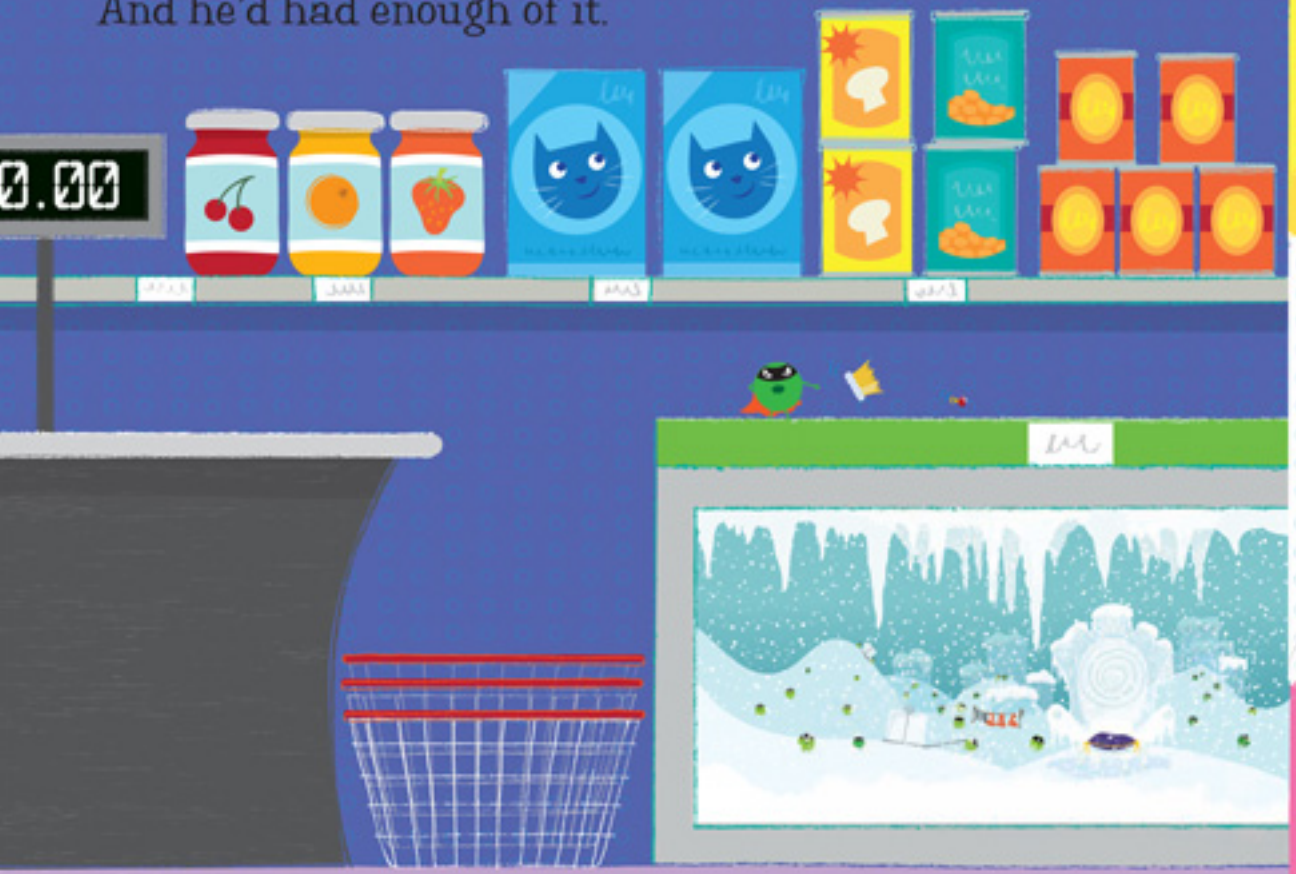

by Sue Hendra and Paul Linnet

SIMON AND SCHUSTER
London New York Sydney Toronto New Delhi

The Evil Pea sat upon his icy throne.
He was king of everything that he could see.
Unfortunately . . .

. . . all he could see was the inside of a boring old freezer!
And he'd had enough of it.

It was night-time in the supermarket and all the good little veggies were settling down to sleep.

But this little veggie wasn't sleepy at all.

'Hmmmmpfff!'
cried the cucumbers.

'Oh NO!' mouthed the melons. 'He's escaped!
The Evil Pea is back!'

'Of course I'm back!' shrieked the pea.
'Now how about a lovely haircut?'

Who could save these poor pineapples in peril?
Supertato, that's who!

'FREEZE!' he shouted.
'You're coming with me!'

And before the Evil Pea could get snippy . . .

. . . he was popped back
into the freezer
where he belonged.

The pea was furious.

'FREEZE, EH?
I'll give him FREEZE!

I'll give them ALL FREEZE!'

DANGER

And within seconds
he was out of the freezer
and up to no good.

Hrrrrrrr
