Princess Snowbelle and the Snowstorm

Libby Frost

BLOOMSBURY
LONDON OXFORD NEW YORK NEW DELHI SYDNEY

Snowbelle, Princess of Frostovia, stood in her turret window looking out
at the Opaline Mountains.

"Sparks, I'm so excited!"
she exclaimed to her white cat.
"But I'm a little bit scared, too"
she whispered.

"I've got to sing the Opening Song tonight at the Snow Ball and I've never performed in front of the whole kingdom before!

Maybe I'll go and talk to Mum and Dad," said Snowbelle,
and Sparks meowed in agreement.

Princess Snowbelle ran from her bedroom
to the grand ballroom in the Opaline Palace.

The decorations weren't in place just yet
but the ballroom already shimmered and glowed,
and beautiful music was playing as her father and mother danced.

Far away, in the glittery land of Frostovia, Princess Snowbelle is preparing to sing at the Snow Ball.

But a big snowstorm is on the way . . .
and Snowbelle's best friend Sparkleshine
can't get through the enchanted forest!
Princess Snowbelle and her pony, Icetail,
are on their way to help!

A wonderful snow-covered tale
of friendship and courage.
