MACMILLAN CHILDREN'S BOOKS

Days with my mummy are always such fun,
the sun's woken up, there's so much to get done!
Together it's special, all laughter and play,
because Mummy is always the light of my day.

In the morning we're speedy at getting up quickly,
I have to watch out, Mummy knows that I'm tickly!

"Let's count down from ten!" she shouts, racing so fast –

but where is my teddy? Who saw him last?

Mummy's so super at doing the shopping.

we zoom round the shops without even stopping!

Lifting bag after bag. Mummy's ever so strong.

she lifts me up too when the walk home's too long.

My mummy is gentle, so caring and kind.
We walk through the park and look down to find . . .

A poor little ladybird's stuck on its back,
but Mummy soon helps it turn right back on track.

With Mummy the roundabout whirls around faster,

until I fall off and cry, "I need a plaster!"

Mummy kisses and rubs and the hurt goes away, then she gives me a hug and we run off to play.
