Oliver, Ruby and Patch were very best friends.
They did everything together.

Swinging high on the park swings.

Playing explorers.

Feeding the birds and . . .

. . . slurping vanilla-strawberry-mint specials
in their favourite ice-cream parlour.

Best of all, they loved to visit the city zoo together.

‘I love the lion! GRRRR!’
said Oliver, laughing.

‘The meerkats are SO cute!’ Ruby smiled.

But Patch had noticed a little penguin. He looked very sad.

‘Ah, you’ve found Peep,’ said Sandy, the zookeeper.
‘He’s a rescue penguin. He’s only just been brought here.’

‘He must miss his old home,’ said Oliver.

'He must miss his old friends too.
But I'm sure he'll settle in soon,' said Ruby.

And they waved to the little penguin
and set off for home.
