But, one day, Raymond had a thought
(a rather BIG thought for a dog).
Looking up at his family seated around the table, and looking down at his bowl of food, he wondered...

Couldn't I just SIT at the table, too?
Isn't that what families do together?

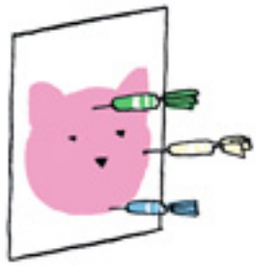

"You're looking for a job, eh?" said the editor-in-chief of DOGUE magazine.

"Yes, please," Raymond said, nodding.

"OK. So, tell me, what's your opinion on cats?" he asked.

"Well ... they are unbelievably silly," said Raymond.

And the job was his.

A DOG'S LIFE WAS ABSOLUTELY BRILLIANT!
