

Next, the contestants needed to wobble their way to the top with their best trifles!

Quentin's trifle scored the biggest wobble on the wobble-o-meter anyone had ever seen.

'Incredible!'

'Look at that wobble!' cried the judges.

Things were going rather well.

But not for Quentin.

He wanted to show everyone what he could do.

'Ooh! Lovely!' said one judge.

'Ten points!' cried the other.

'There are five challenges in the Bunny Bake-off and you must complete them all.

The bunny with the most Brownie Points wins.

LET THE BAKE-OFF BEGIN!'

First up, was the Bread round.
Every baker needed to be able to bake the perfect loaf!

The dough proved to be a bit of a nightmare for some of the bakers.
