Frog Hops Off!

MACMILLAN CHILDREN'S BOOKS

Frog was always very bouncy.
But today he was feeling very bouncy indeed!
He couldn't wait to get to Twit Twoo School.
His teacher, Miss Hoot, had said that today
they were going . . . exploring!

Frog didn't want to hold Daddy's hand. He was off!

When Daddy finally managed to catch up with Frog he said,
"Now listen to what Miss Hoot says today.
No bouncing off on your own."

"Yes Daddy," said Frog, who was trying to hold
in a huge hop.

Frog got to school very early.
Eventually the other children arrived.

They were all very excited, and the first thing they explored was each other's lunchboxes.

Frog managed to drop his on the floor. Mole helped him pick it up.

Owl was very proud of his lunch. He had made it all himself.

Rabbit had already eaten most of hers.

Miss Hoot gathered the class around. "Today, children," she said, "we are going underground."

Frog jumped up, knocking over his lunchbox again. It was going to be even better than he'd thought!
