Little One, if you promise you'll go to sleep, I'll tell you our story.
It's so secret even your mama hasn't heard it . . .

In penguin families when the eggs arrive, all the mamas go far away to fish. All the dads are left behind, looking after their egg-babies, huddled outside in Dad Huddles, with nothing to eat. Nothing.

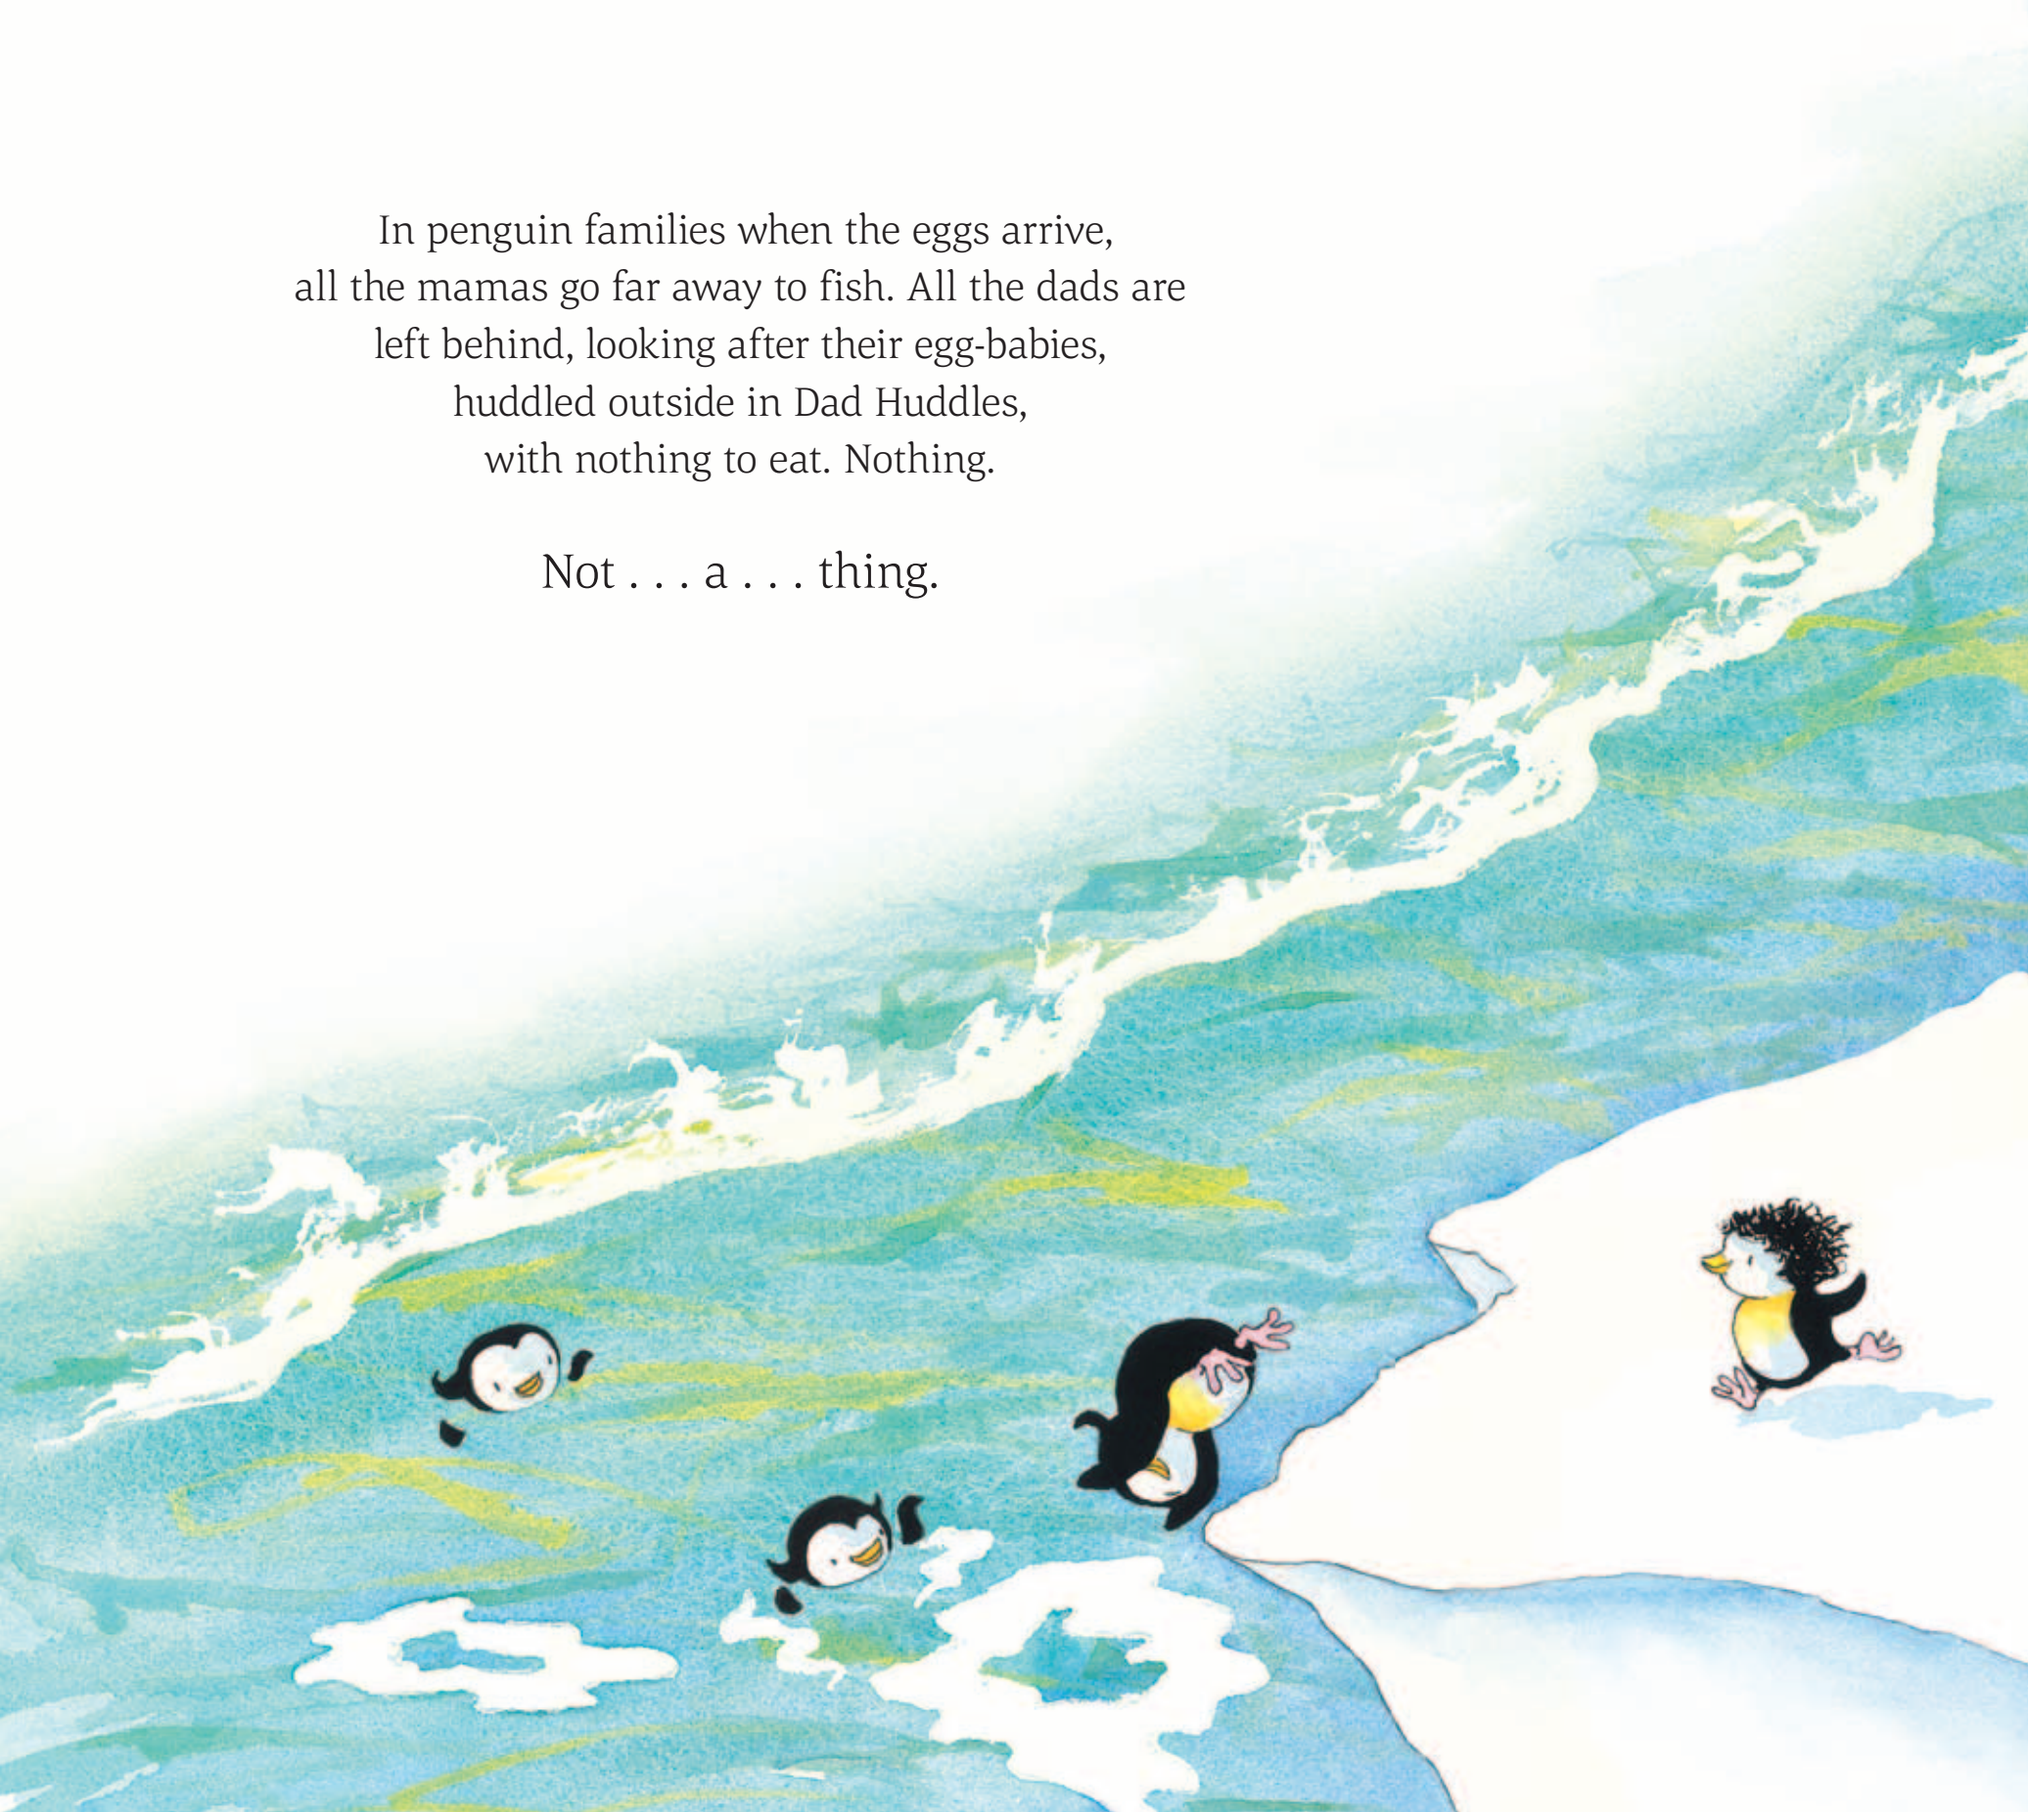
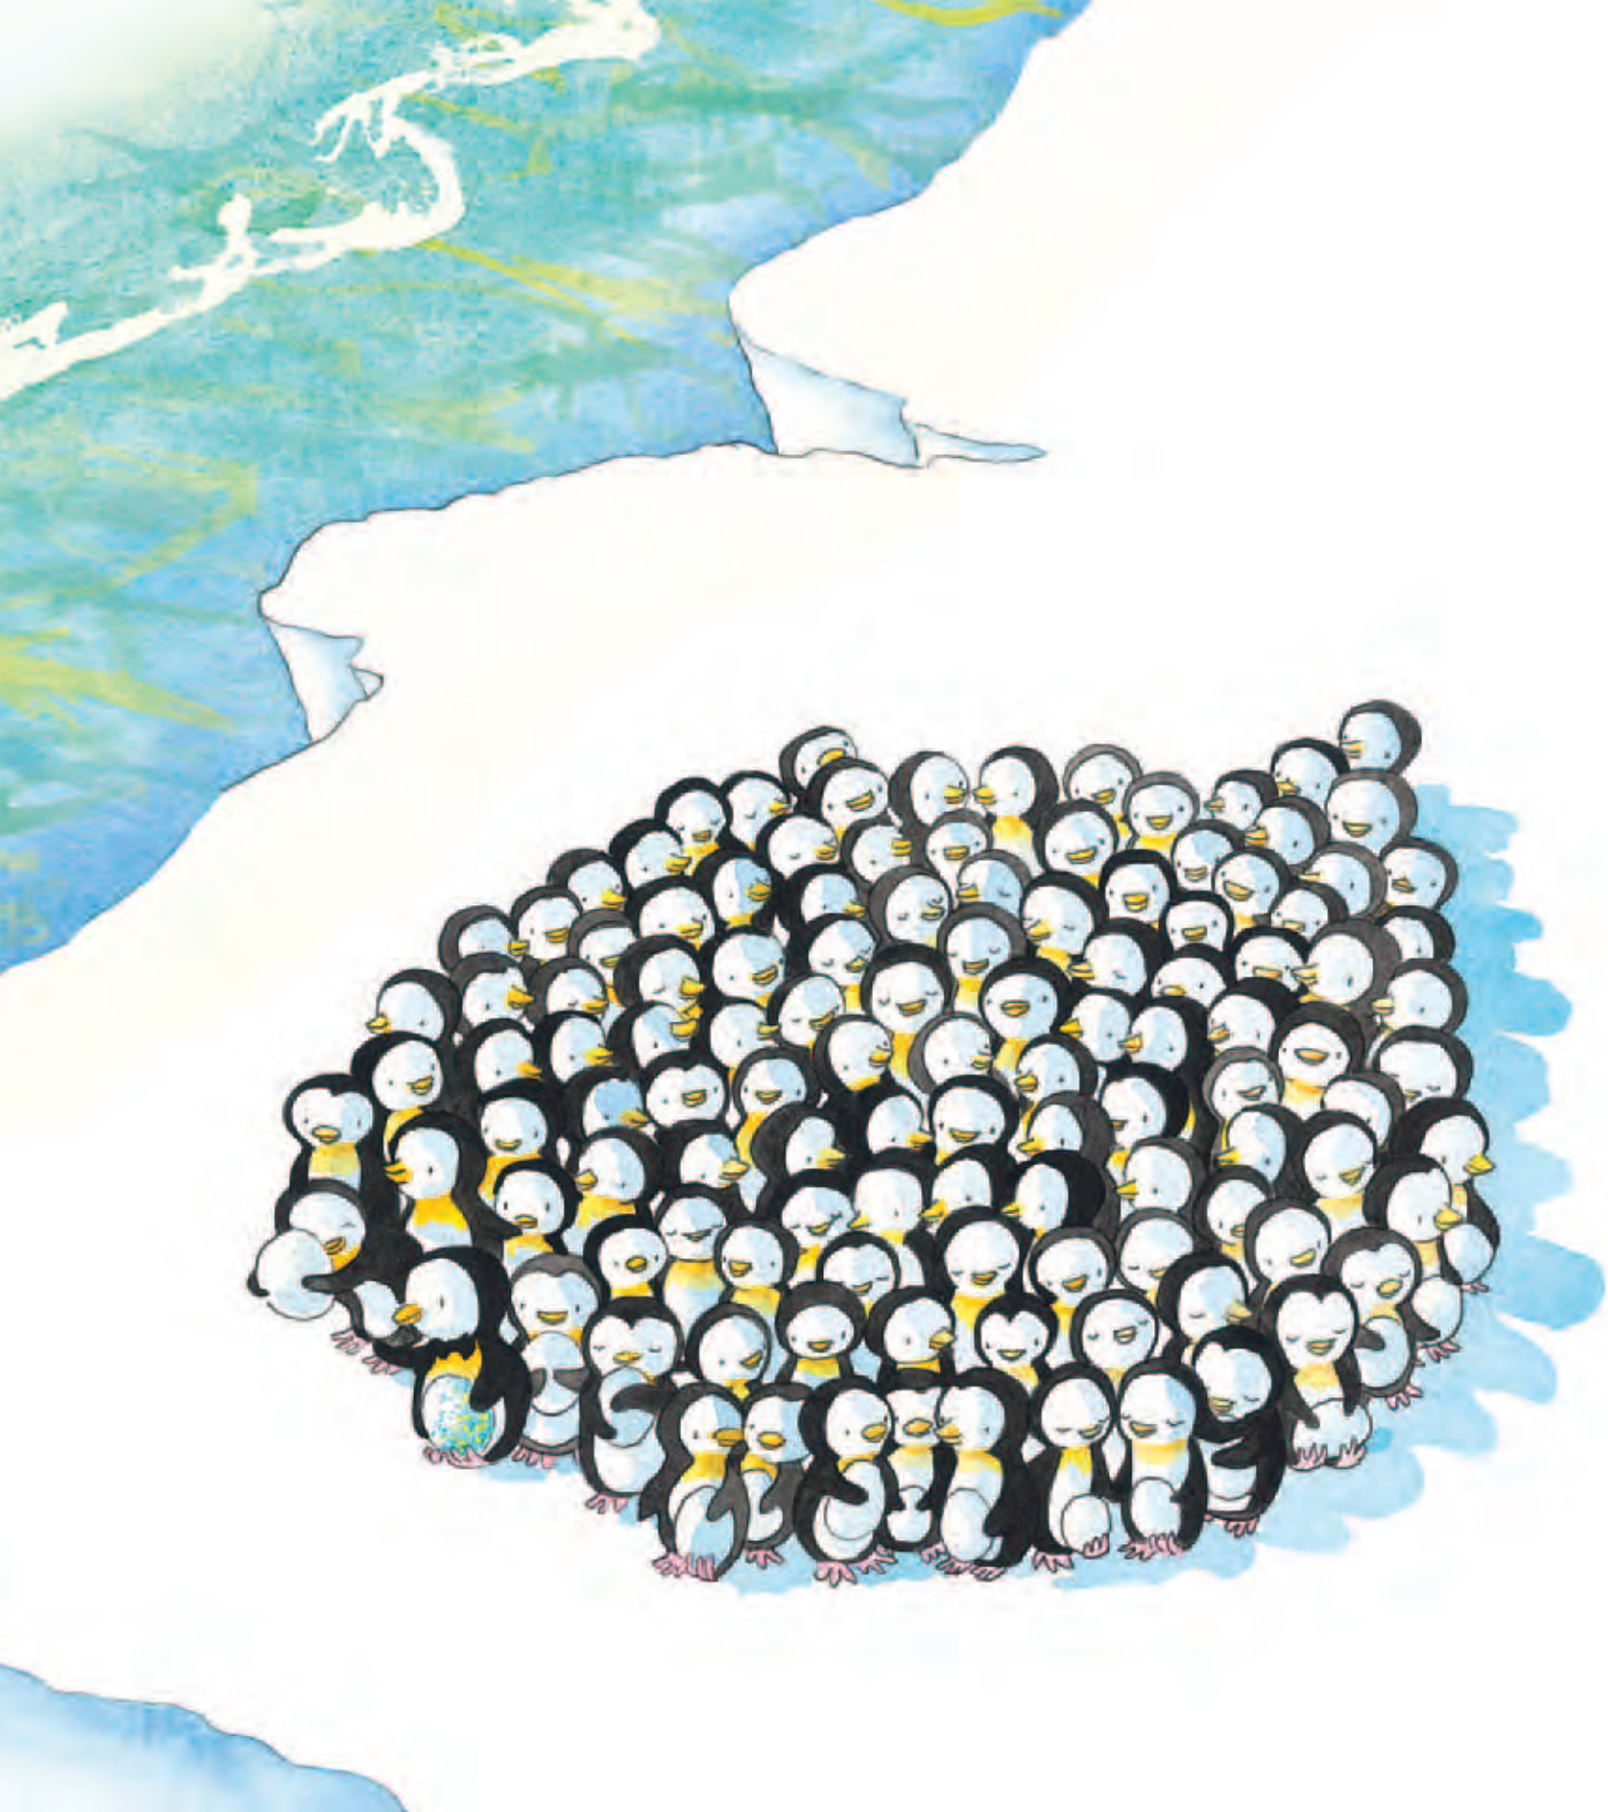
Not . . . a . . . thing.





For parents of Very Smalls – this one's for you.
