

CHAPTER 1

A new project

Ms Alex walked into the classroom with a big box.

"We are going to build a city today!" she announced.

The children were very curious. They all crowded around Ms Alex as she opened the box.

Yasmin watched as Ms Alex spread the building parts all over the carpet.

"When can we start?" Ali asked. He reached for a long stick.

"Not yet," replied Ms Alex. "First you will draw your idea on paper. That way you'll know what materials you will need."

"Boring!" said Ali.

Yasmin slowly pulled a piece of paper from her desk. She doodled. She sketched. She sighed.
