
Miss Hoot
Mole
Frog
Mouse
Owl
Rabbit

For Gracie
LM

First published 2019 by Macmillan Children's Books
an imprint of Pan Macmillan
20 New Wharf Road, London N1 9RR
Associated companies throughout the world
www.panmacmillan.com

ISBN 978-1-5098-8149-9

Text and illustrations copyright © Lydia Monks 2019

The right of Lydia Monks to be identified as the author and illustrator of this work has been asserted by her in accordance with the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988.

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means (electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise), without the prior written permission of the publisher.

1 3 5 7 9 8 6 4 2

A CIP catalogue record for this book is available from the British Library.

Printed in China

Lydia Monks

Rabbit Races Ahead!

MACMILLAN CHILDREN'S BOOKS

It was a special day at Twit Twoo School, and all the children were very excited. It was Sports Day!

They had been training all week, especially Rabbit. She had decided that she was going to win every single race!

Mouse was really good at running, but Rabbit was faster.

Frog was fantastic at jumping high, but Rabbit always beat him.

Owl was great at long jump, but Rabbit could jump further.

Mole was trying to get the hang of skipping, but Rabbit was an expert.

"I'm the best! I'm going to win every race, just watch me!" boasted Rabbit.

"She's such a show-off!" muttered Mouse to Mole.

"She's not being very kind!" whispered Owl to Frog, as they went to have a sit down and a drink.

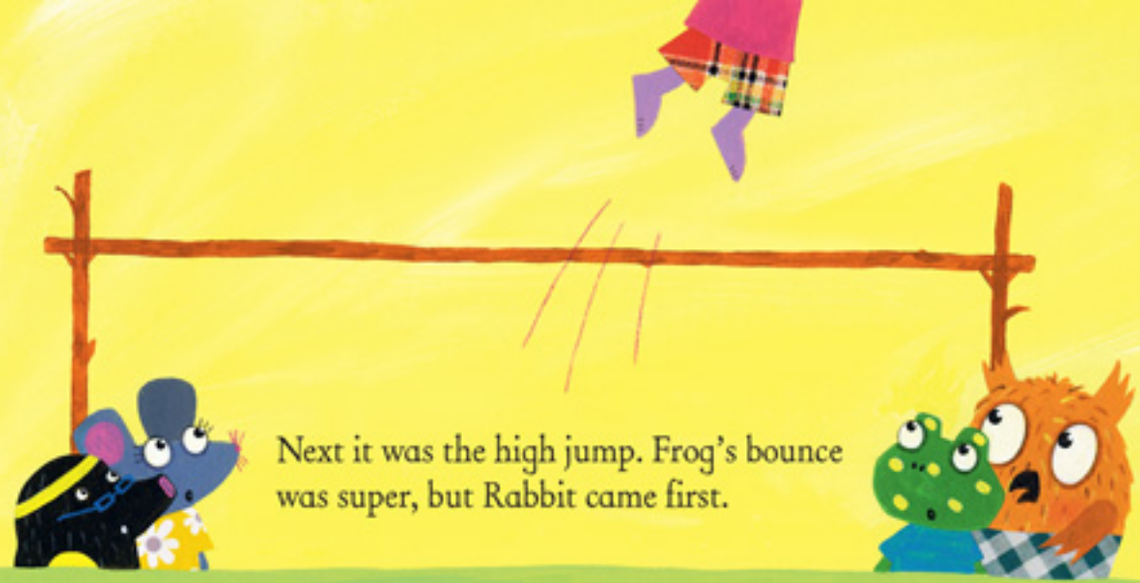

No one wanted to sit with Rabbit.

"Come on everyone!" called Miss Hoot. "It's time for the first race!"

They started with the running race.
Mouse ran really fast, but Rabbit came first.

Next it was the high jump. Frog's bounce was super, but Rabbit came first.

Then it was the long jump. Owl jumped a long way, but Rabbit came first.

The skipping race was next. Mole made a great effort . . . but Rabbit came first.

