Hello.
I can see you from the forest.

You look bored.

Would you like to go
for an ice cream?

My favourite flavour
is chocolate.

Love,
Emily x

Mother, the day is fine and the air is sweet with honeysuckle. May I go outside to eat ice creams? Just this once?

Frederick, do you remember the last time?

Yes, Mother. I remember. I am sorry to have troubled you.

COUNTRY LIFE

VOGUE

FROM THE DESK OF
FREDERICK LEOPOLD NADELBAUM

My Dearest Emily,

The woodlark's melody floats
across the shimmering sky.

It is with bitter regret that I inform you I may not come out to eat ice creams today, on account that I might be sick into my music box.

Sorrowfully yours,
Frederick

Hi Frederick,
I'm climbing trees
today.
Do you want to come?

Love,
Emily x
